GUUX (AI LEFT) AND ZUCCARELLES AFTER THE HAUDING

FIVE RACE MEN HURT IN DAY'S SPEED BATTLE

Mechanician Lee Dunning of Wrecked Mason Car May

Die of Injuries.

DRIVER TOWER IN HOSPITAL AFTER SPECTACULAR SPILL

Three Employes Suffer Slightly and a Few Visitors to Speedway

Are Overcome by Heat.

A mechanician was probably fatally injured and a driver seriously injured during the 500-mile race at the Motor Speedway yesterday when their car left the track at the south turn and catabulted through the air, turning over twice. The injured:

Mason car, entry No. 6, 2256 Wabash ayenue, Chicago; left breast crushed, jaw broken and internal injuries; probably fatal.

JACK TOWER, driver Mason car, No. When the emergency ambulance got 6; New York; right leg broken and post Tower to the hospital he did not realize that he was seriously injured. As he was sible internal injuries; serious.

MANY HEAT PROSTRATIONS.

A number of minor accidents and hear prostrations were recorded during the day.

Minor cases receiving attention were:

R. L. BOBBS, Dallas. Tex.; member of

WEATHER FORECAST.

For e cast for Indiana for Saturday and Sunday!

Generally fair Saturday, except possibly local showers or thunderstorms. Slight change in temperature. Sunday fair.

Forecast for Indianapolis and vicinity for today:

Probably fair and continued warm.

Po

1-

2-

4-

6-

7-

8-

10-

S

ALMANAC OF THE DAY.

Sun rises at 1.2. 4:15 Sun sets at 1. 7:07 WEATHER CONDITIONS YESTERDAY

1	Frecipitation
	Amount during the twenty four hours	0
	ending at 7 p m	21 50
1	Accumulated departure from normal	4.57
	Temperatures	• •

7-7-	A. P	70	71	Highest Lowest
				Date Last
7	n.	m	53	Highest	68
7	p.	m	63	Lowest

car struck the earth, nose pointing down. The machine hesitated a moment, then turned on its back and lay there.

Tower and his mechanician were not thrown from the car, but went down with it. When the racer turned over a second time both men were discovered by those near at hand.

When help reached him the driver was barely conscious and was half buried in the mud.

TOWER TRIES TO STAND.

When the emergency ambulance got Tower to the hospital he did not realize that he was seriously injured. As he was lifted from the auto he made a brave attempt to stand, but was too weak, and when laid upon the cot he closed his eyes and all but fainted. As the physicians' assistants started him toward the improvised operating table he roused himself and said:

"Wait a minute, turn round; don't

FIVE RACE MEN HURT IN DAY'S SPEED BATTLE

Mechanician Lee Dunning Wrecked Mason Car May Die of Injuries.

DRIVER TOWER IN HOSPITAL AFTER SPECTACULAR SPILL

Three Employes Suffer Slightly and a Few Visitors to Speedway Are Overcome by Heat.

A mechanician was probably fatally injured and a driver seriously injured during the 500-mile race at the Motor Speedway yesterday when their car left the track at the south turn and catabulted through the air, turning over twice. The injured:

LEE DUNNING, mechanician on the Mason car, entry No. 6, 2256 Wabash ayenue, Chicago; left breast crushed, jaw broken and internal injuries; probably fatal.

sible internal injuries; serious.

MANY HEAT PROSTRATIONS.

A number of minor accidents and heatprostrations were recorded during the day. Minor cases receiving attention were:

R. L. BOBBS, Dallas, Tex.; member of

WEATHER FORECAST.

Forecast for Indiana for Saturday and Sunday

Generally fair Satexcept possibly local showers or thunderstorms. Slight change in temperaliture Sunday fair.

Forecast for Indianapolis and vicinity for today:

Probably fair and continued warm.

Po

1-

2-

4-

6-

7-

8-

10

S

ALMANAC OF THE DAY.

Sun rises at . . . . 4:15 Sun sets at . . 7:07 WEATHER CONDITIONS YESTERDAY

recipitation
Amount during the twenty four hours		•
ending at 7 p.m	21	50
Accumulated departure from normal since Jan. 1 (excess)	4	57
Temperatures
71 Habot		87

	a .	m it mights	''
7	p	m 74 Lowest = = ======	68
		For the Same Date Last Year-
7	n.	masses	68
7	p.	m	51
		the second secon

car struck the earth, nose pointing down, The machine hesitated a moment, then turned on its back and lay there.

Tower and his mechanician were not thrown from the car, but went down with When the racer turned over a second time both men were discovered by those near at hand.

When help reached him the driver was barely conscious and was half buried in the mud.

TOWER TRIES TO STAND.

JACK TOWER, driver Mason car, No When the emergency ambulance got 6; New York; right leg broken and pos- Tower to the hospital he did not realize that he was seriously injured. As he was lifted from the auto he made a brave attempt to stand, but was too weak, and when laid upon the cot he closed his eyes and all but fainted. As the physicians' assistants started him toward the improvised operating table he roused himself and said:

"Wait a minute, turn round; JULK (AT LEPT) AND 2000ARELLERAFTER THE RAVELER

of

FIVE RACE MEN HURT IN DAY'S SPEED BATTLE

Mechanician Lee Dunning Wrecked Mason Car May
Die of Injuries.

DRIVER TOWER IN HOSPITAL AFTER SPECTACULAR SPILL

Three Employes Suffer Slightly and a Few Visitors to Speedway

Are Overcome by Heat.

A mechanician was probably fatally injured and a driver seriously injured during the 500-mile race at the Motor Speedway yesterday when their car left the track at the south turn and catapulted through the air, turning over twice. The injured:

Mason car, entry No. 6, 2256 Wabash ayenue, Chicago; left breast crushed, jaw broken and internal injuries; probably fatal.

JACK TOWER, driver Mason car, No When the emergency ambulance got 5; New York; right leg broken and post Tower to the hospital he did not realize sible internal injuries; serious.

That he was seriously injured. As he was seriously injured. As he was seriously injured.

MANY HEAT PROSTRATIONS.

A number of minor accidents and heat prostrations were recorded during the day.

Minor cases receiving attention were:

R. L. BOBBS, Dallas, Tex.; member of

WEATHER FORECAST.

For e cast for Indiana for Saturday and Sunday:

Generally fair Saturday, except possibly local showers or thunderstorms. Slight change in temperature. Sunday fair.

Forecast for Indianapolis and vicinity for today:

Probably fair and continued warm.

Po

1-

2-

5-ც-

8-

10-

ALMANAC OF THE DAY.

Sun rises at ..., 4:18 | Sun sets at ..., 7:07

WEATHER CONDITIONS YESTERDAY.

—Precipitation.—

-Precipitation
Amount during the twenty four hours	•
ending at 7 pm	21.60
Accumulated departure from normal since Jan. 1 (excess)	4.57
Temperatures
7 a. m 71   Highest	87
7 p. m 74! Lowest	68
For the Same Date Last Year	-

car struck the earth, nose pointing down. The machine hesitated a moment, then turned on its back and lay there.

Tower and his mechanician were not thrown from the car, but went down with it. When the racer turned over a second time both men were discovered by those near at hand.

When help reached him the driver was barely conscious and was half buried in the mud,

TOWER TRIES TO STAND.

When the emergency ambulance got Tower to the hospital he did not realize that he was seriously injured. As he was lifted from the auto he made a brave attempt to stand, but was too weak, and when laid upon the cot he closed his eyes and all but fainted. As the physicians' assistants started him toward the improvised operating table he roused himself and said:

"Wait a minute, turn round; don'

A mechanician was probably fatally injurned and a driver ser ously injured dur- fear struck the earth, nose pointing down ing the 200-mile race at the Motor Speed. wat pesterial when their car left the turned on its back and lay frese track at the south turn and catarulted through the air, turning over twice. The injured:

LEE DUNNING, mechanician on the Mason car, entry No. 6, 2256 Wabash avenue, Chicago; left breast crushed, jaw, broken and internal injuries; probably fatal.

JACK TOWER, driver Mason car. 6. New York; right leg broken and pos- Tower to the hospital he did not reafize sible internal injuries; serious.

MANY HEAT PROSTRATIONS.

prostrations were recorded during the day. Minor cases receiving attention were:

R. L. BOBBS, Dallas, Tex.; member of Tailsa racing team; right shoulder disloby heat; not serious.

JAMES BEGGS, New York; member Isotta-Franchini racing team; overcome

K. F. BARROWS, Indianapolis; overcome by heat; not serious.

WILLIAM HORNLEIN, Atlantic City, N. J.: cut on hands by barb-wire fence.

BOB EVANS, Mason racing crew;

crushed thumb. DR. C. H. CARPENTER, 105 East Palmer street, city; overcome by heat.

C. R. COOK, Philadelphia; overcome by the heat.

J. PAUL STEVENS, New York; over--come by heat. Crowded onto the sunny field or packed into the south turn bleachers, without covering, the heat became intense. Many women became faint and were rushed into the shade.

from the heat who Those suffering were given treatment at the emergency hospital, in charge of Dr. Frank R. Allen, were able to leave the hospital.

The accident to the Mason car occurred in front of the west end of the bleachers and was witnessed by thou-

Tower and his mechanician were not thrown from the car but went down with it. When the racer turned over a second time both men were dispovered by those near at hand

. p ·

. 63 Londet

The machine hesitated a moment, then

1 don't

Pr

81)

1186

811 me

Sa

in m an

th di:

th

8.8

es

he

in

5 6

8

9

10

When help reached him the driver was barely conscious and was half buried in the mud.

TOWER TRIES TO STAND.

When the emergency ambulance got that he was seriously injured. As he was lifted from the auto he made a brave lattempt to stand, but was too weak, and when laid upon the cot he closed his eyes A number of minor accidents and beat and all but fainted. As the physicians' assistants started him toward the improvised operating table he roused himself and sald:

"Wait a minute, turn round; carry me in feet first this time." When Tower's injured leg had been placed in splints he was taken to a cot beneath a tent on the edge of the hospital grounds, where he could see the cars as they rose on the embankment to take the curve. Lee Gunning, Tower's mechanician, was brought to the hospital a few minutes later, and after being given medical attention was placed on a cot near Tower. Later, when Bob Burman was relieved at the wheel of the Keeton, he. too, came to the tent and lay on a cot near Tower and Gunning for an hour to rest.

In less than a minute after the accident to the Mason dozens of persons surrounded the men and the wrecked machine, and it was with difficulty that they were reached by an ambulance. Tower exhibited his nerve a moment after the spill when he remarked to standers: "Well, I've got one broken leg, and another won't kill me."

After the race the two men were removed to the Methodist Hospital. It was said that Dunning's condition was not improved last night. Experts at the Speedway were unable to tell exactly what caused the accident.

The theory was advanced that drove too close to the edge of the embankment leading from the track and went over. Those who were on the spot, however, pointed out the tracks made by-the wreeked machine which ted from the center of the track directly to the embankment of the inside.

sands. The car was well up in the run-An examination of the car was made, but it was said that it was impossible to ning and looked a contender for the hontell whether breaks had been made beors of the day. It was grinding along at

111 H Vi. M

he th Lo ci ti

Sc 'In fr 50

A mechanician was probably fatally injured and a driver seriously injured during the 800-mile race at the Motor Speedwap yesterday when their car left the track at the south turn and catabulted through the air, turning over twice. The injured:

LEE DUNNING, mechanician on the Mason car, entry No. 6, 2256 Wabash avenue, Chicago; left breast crushed, jaw broken and internal injuries; probably fatal.

JACK TOWER, driver Mason car. De-6: New York: right leg broken and pos-1 sible internal injuries; serious.

MANY HEAT PROSTRATIONS.

prostrations were recorded during the day. Minor cases receiving attention were:

R. L. BOBBS, Dallas, Tex.; member of Tailsa racing team; right shoulder dislo-

JAMES BEGGS. New York; member Isotta-Franchini racing team; overcome by heat; not serious. K. F. BARROWS, Indianapolis; over-

come by heat; not serious. WILLIAM HORNLEIN, Atlantic City,

N. J.; cut on hands by barb-wire fence. Mason racing crew; BOB EVANS, crushed thumb. DR. C. H. CARPENTER, 105 East

Palmer street, city; overcome by heat. C. R. COOK, Philadelphia; overcome by the heat. J. PAUL STEVENS, New York; over--come by heat.

Crowded onto the sunny field or packed into the south turn bleachers, without covering, the heat became intense. Many women became faint and were rushed into the shade. from the heat who Those suffering were given treatment at the emergency hospital, in charge of Dr. Frank R.

The accident to the Mason car occurred in front of the west end of the bleachers and was witnessed by thou-

Allen, were able to leave the hospital.

sands. . The car was well up in the running and looked a contender for the honors of the day. It was grinding along at car struck the earth, nose pointing down The machine heritated a moment, then turned on its back and his there

. 63 Lander

A. 25%

T p in

Tower and his mechanician were not thrown from the car, but went down with When the racer turned over a second time both men were discovered by those near at hand. When help reached him the driver was

TOWER TRIES TO STAND.

Tower to the hospital he did not realize

When the emergency ambulance got

barely conscious and was half buried in that he was seriously injured. As he was lifted from the auto he made a brave attempt to stand, but was too weak, and when laid upon the cot he closed his eyes A number of minor accidents and heat and all but fainted. As the physicians' assistants started him toward the improvised operating table he roused himself and sald: "Wait a minute, turn round; don't carry me in feet first this time."

beneath a tent on the edge of the hospital grounds, where he could see the cars as they rose on the embankment to take the curve. Lee Gunning, Tower's mechanician, was brought to the hospital a few minutes later, and after being given medical attention was placed on a cot near Tower.

Later, when Bob Burman was relieved at

When Tower's injured leg had been placed in splints he was taken to a cot

the wheel of the Keeton, he. too, came to the tent and-lay on a cot near Tower and Gunning for an hour to rest. In less than a minute after the accident to the Mason dozens of persons surrounded the men and the wrecked machine, and it was with difficulty that they were reached by an ambulance.

standers: "Well, I've got one broken leg, and another won't kill me." After the race the two men were re-

Tower exhibited his nerve a moment after.

the spill when he remarked to moved to the Methodist Hospital. It was said that Dunning's condition was not improved last night. Experts at the Speedway were unable to tell exactly what caused the accident. The theory was advanced that drove too close to the edge of the enibankment leading from the track and went over. Those who were on the spot, however, pointed out the tracks made by the wreeked machine which led from the center of the track directly to the embankment of the inside. An examination of the car was made, but it was said that it was impossible to tell whether breaks had been made be-

Pr

6

8

9

10

81) lia 811 me Sa

in m an ŧh

di th 8.8

he in 111 H Vi:

> M he th

> to ċi: tic Sc In fr 50

A mechanician was probably fatally injured and a driver seriously injured during the 560-mile race at the Motor Speedway yesterday when their car left the track at the south turn and catapulted through the air, turning over twice. The injured:

LEE DUNNING, mechanician on the Mason car, entry No. 6, 2256 Wabash ayenue, Chicogo; left breast crushed, jaw broken and internal injuries; probably fatal. JACK TOWER, driver Mason car, 6. New York: right leg broken and possible internal injuries; serious.

MANY HEAT PROSTRATIONS.

A number of minor accidents and heat prostrations were recorded during the day. Minor cases receiving attention were:

R. L. BOBBS, Dallas, Tex.; member of Tailsa racing team; right shoulder dislocated.

JAMES BEGGS, New York; member Isotta-Franchini racing team; overcome by heat; not serious. K. F. BARROWS, Indianapolis; over-

come by heat; not serious. WILLIAM HORNLEIN, Atlantic City,

N. J.; cut on hands by barb-wire fence.

BOB EVANS, Mason racing crew; crushed thumb.

DR. C. H. CARPENTER, 105 East Palmer street, city; overcome by heat.

C. R. COOK, Philadelphia; overcome by the heat. J. PAUL STEVENS, New York; over--come by heat.

Crowded onto the sunny field or packed into-the south turn bleachers, without covering, the heat became intense. Many women became faint and were rushed into the shade.

Those suffering from the heat who were given treatment at the emergency hospital, in charge of Dr. Frank R. Allen, were able to leave the hospital.

The accident to the Mason car occurred in front of the west end of the bleachers and was witnessed by thousands. The car was well up in the running and looked a contender for the honors of the day. It was grinding along at car struck the earth, nose pointing down. The machine heritated a moment, then turned on his back and his there.

... (3 1000

Tower and his mechanician were not thrown from the car, but went down with it. When the racer turned over a second time both men were discovered by those near at hand. When help reached him the driver was

TOWER TRIES TO STAND.

barely conscious and was half buried in

When the emergency ambulance got Tower to the hospital he did not realize that he was seriously injured. As he was lifted from the auto he made a brave attempt to stand, but was too weak, and when laid upon the cot he closed his eyes and all but fainted. As the physicians' assistants started him toward the improvised operating table he roused himself and said:

"Wait a minute,

When Tower's injured leg had been placed in splints he was taken to a cot beneath a tent on the edge of the hos-pital grounds, where he could see the cars as they rose on the embankment to carry me in feet first this time.'

turn round; don't take the curve. Lee Gunning, Tower's mechanician, was brought to the hospital a few minutes later, and after being given medical attention was placed on a cot near Tower. Later, when Bob Burman was relieved at the wheel of the Kaeton, he. too, came and Gunning for an hour to rest. In less than a minute after the accident to the Mason dozens of persons surrounded the men and the wrecked machine, and it was with difficulty that they were reached by an ambulance. Tower exhibited his nerve a moment after.

to the tent and lay on a cot near Tower

standers: "Well, I've got one broken leg, and another won't kill me."

the spill when he remarked to by-

After the race the two men were removed to the Methodist Hospital. It was said that Dunning's condition was not improved last night. Experts at the Speedway were unable to tell exactly what caused the accident. The theory was advanced that drove too close to the edge of the embankment leading from the track and went over. Those who were on the spot, however, pointed out the tracks made by the wreeked machine which led from the center of the track directly to the embankment of the inside. An examination of the car was made, but it was said that it was impossible to tell whether breaks had been made be-fore or after it left the track. It was

10 ci ti

m an th di

Pr

ap

lia

Bti

me

Sa

in

6

7

8

9

10 th 8.8 es he in

111 H Vi. M

he th ing the 500-mile race at the Motor Speedway yesterday when their car left the track at the south turn and catabulted through the air, turning over twice. injured:

LEE DUNNING, mechanician on the Mason car, entry No. 6, 2256 Wabash avenue, Chicago; left breast crushed, jaw broken and, internal injuries; probably fatal.

JACK TOWER, driver Mason car. 6: New York: right log broken and possible internal injuries; serious.

MANY HEAT PROSTRATIONS.

A number of minor accidents and heat t prostrations were recorded during the day. Minor cases receiving attention were: R. L. BOBBS, Dallas, Tex.; member of Talka racing team; right shoulder dislocated.

JAMES BEGGS, New York; member Isotta-Franchini racing team; overcome by heat; not serious.

K. F. BARROWS, Indianapolis; over-

come by heat; not serious. WILLIAM HORNLEIN, Atlantic City,

N. J.; cut on hands by barb-wire fence.

Mason racing crew; BOB EVANS,

DR. C. H. CARPENTER, 105 East

Palmer street, city; overcome by heat. C. R. COOK, Philadelphia; overcome by the heat.

crushed thumb.

-come by heat. Crowded onto the sunny field or packed

J. PAUL STEVENS, New York; over-

into the south turn bleachers, without covering, the heat became intense. Many women became faint and were rushed into the shade.

Those suffering from the heat who were given treatment at the emergency hospital, in charge of Dr. Frank R. Allen, were able to leave the hospital.

The accident to the Mason car occurred in front of the west end of the bleachers and was witnessed by thousands. . The car was well up in the running and looked a contender for the honbleachers when it was put out of the race.

When within 100 yards of the bridge over

The machine hesitated a mement, then turned on its back and lay there

Tower and his mechanician were not thrown from the car, but went down with When the racer turned over a second time both men were dispovered by those near at hand

When help reached him the driver was barely conscious and was half buried in the mud.

TOWER TRIES TO STAND.

When the emergency ambulance got Tower to the hospital he did not resize that he was seriously injured. As he was lifted from the auto he made a brave attempt to stand, but was too weak, and when laid upon the cot he closed his eyes and all but fainted. As the physicians' assistants started him toward the improvised operating table he roused himself and said: "Wait a minute, turn round; carry me in feet first this time." When Tower's injured leg had been placed in splints he was taken to a cot beneath a tent on the edge of the hospital grounds, where he could see the cars as they rose on the embankment to take the curve.

brought to the hospital a few minutes later, and after being given medical attention was placed on a cot near Tower. Later, when Bob Burman was relieved at the wheel of the Keeton, he. too, came to the tent and lay on a cottnear Tower and Gunning for an hour to rest. In less than a minute after the acci-

Lee Gunning, Tower's mechanician, was dent to the Mason dozens of persons surrounded the men and the wrecked machine, and it was with difficulty that they were reached by an ambulance. Tower exhibited his nerve a moment after standers: "Well, I've got one broken leg, and another won't kill me."

the spill when he remarked to

After the race the two men were removed to the Methodist Hospital. It was said that Dunning's condition was not improved last night. Experts at the Speedway were unable to tell exactly what caused the accident. The theory was advanced that drove too close to the edge of the embankment leading from the track and went over. Those who were on the spot, however, pointed out the tracks made by the wrecked machine which led from the center of the track directly to the embankment of the inside. An examination of the car was made, but it was said that it was impossible to ors of the day. It was grinding along at tell whether breaks had been made beserventy-five miles an hour and had just concluded by those who made an investeached the short stretch in front of the tigation that a bad double-skid two laps previous had weakened the car-

9-

10-

Ma

-- H Pre apo lian

stre mor Say in med

and the diti

M the 8.8 esp he

in ( ill s His ville

Μ. at t her

the to . clat

tior Soc In frle

50 y Mr Say of me the

tha She person, a course grown transcriped the transcripe fact Months industrial content of the State of th

B. L. BORDS, Links at Tan more set of Periods raming tomain charter discussion feeting 8 A S M 1

LAMES BEGGS Hen Turk memous Langua Franciscos carring desira confirment by held not serious

M. F. BARRONIA Indicapagnosis mest Todaya be head but actions

WILLIAM HORNLEIN AT MICE OTO & I will am hamile by harbine to be we.

SOO EVANS, Masses recite for Fruited Imagin

DIR C H. CARPENTER, '10 First. Pulmer street with retunded by boat

C. R COOK. Phills leights, ower one by the heat

J. PAUL STEVENS, New York, overcompe by heat

Crowded onto the sunny field or packed into the south turn bicathers, without covering, the heat became interest. Many women became fatat and were rushed into the shade.

Those suffering from the heat who were given treatment at the emergency hospital, in charge of Dr. Frank R. Allen, were able to leave the hospital.

The accident to the Mason car occurred in front of the west end of the bleachers and was witnessed by thousands. The car was well up in the running and looked a contender for the honors of the day. It was grinding along at seventy-five miles an hour and had just concluded by those who made an investreached the short stretch in front of the tigation that a bad double-skid two laps bleachers when it was put out of the race. When within 100 yards of the bridge over the small run beneath the track it swerved. There was no sound of a bursting tire. The front wheel gave way suddenly and the car, despite its speed, rushed toward the retaining wall.

HITS SOFT EARTH.

It then rushed backward toward the inside of the track and struck the soft earth on the inside of the track and turned over. One complete somersault was turned, according to witnesses, before the 8 a. m. and 9 a. m.

mentered and concerns and telephone acree thereof a till that the telephone and the color his morne. amendance elevant fula haven't in the processed approaching carlos for constitutions 1011 1 1 112 161 16

ACATH A CONTRACT SAFETY course our de Sees Louis la la Carrie

radiani Propiesis disperius and bust buste. man and in aughliente bie word badam, die & men Increase : 1 . Spring aus Afric gefiger auf 1950. March parts: grommide, which has made the - p. pra g. a. 1 feine pt. drauten aun. 1 ft up im 192. Bag, mich angenebill lich take the complete

Lieu Bandiging. Power a merchenautien. Die Some girt to the hampital a few indergram நட்டா உறும் ஆட்டும் இளக்கும் ஆறிர்கள் வக்கிக் கட் turned and the season of the s Caper when But the transmission of and the mines of the hinder, he is upone to the tend bed bay ob a con loss from and the saling the am home to creat in Joseph Lingson, & michigate acte " the mercheret the Mason sounds of the thomas energy, a land the men and the war hed markens and it was with difficult that that they were reached by at a look to Tower exhibited his harve a motheri after the spill when he summashed to by standers.

Well I've got one broken leg and another wont kill me

After the race the two men were rect moved to the Methodist Hospital It was said that Dunning's condition was not improved last night

Experts at the Speedway were unable to tell exactly what caused the accident. The theory was advanced that Tower drove too close to the edge of the embankment leading from the track and went over. Those who were on the spot. however, pointed out the tracks made by the wrecked machine which led from the center of the track directly to the embankment of the inside.

An examination of the car was made, but it was said that it was impossible to

In Indianapolis Today.

Baseball—Indianapolis vs. Pittsburgh (Federal League), Riverside

Young folks' dance for The Star Summer Mission Fund, Brenneke's Academy, afternoon.

Woman's Improvement Glub tag day. Indiana Nature Study Club meeting, Woollen's Garden of Birds and Botany: cars leave Traction Terminal Station at

1 (B) (D) (d)

#5.33 975 on 1 34 . 1

are gr 6 Even

dill 19 0

A .. . . . hie. 3 2 1

111 111 v111 M

41 1 1 her the 10 cla

tio Soc in frle 50

Mr Say of me

the the She

GI

Fa

Er  $\mathbf{G}$ . no

I

Sh bid he