

BUTLER TEAM READY

EXPECTS TO BEAT FRANKLIN

LOCAL COLLEGE ELEVEN ON EDGE FOR BATTLE WITH BAPTISTS THIS AFTERNOON—COACH MCKAY LOOKS FOR VICTORY.

The Butler football eleven travels to Franklin today to play the Baptists. Both teams have been working hard for the last week to get into shape for today's game. Practice was held on Irwin Field yesterday by the Butler team in a drizzling rain. Coach McKay was glad to give his men an opportunity to work with a wet ball. A rain today would seriously interfere with Butler's forward passes. The Baptists are expected to use straight football against Butler, and it has been with this in view that Coach McKay has been working up his defense. The line has straightened materially since the first game of the season, and Coach Goheen's men will have a hard time making any gains with the use of the old-style football.

Butler's backs are working together better than at any time this year. Today's game should be fast throughout. On kicking Thomas has it on Bryan, the Franklin quarter back. Thomas is averaging an easy fifty yards on his punts, which are high, giving the Butler ends plenty of time to get down under the ball. Reports from Franklin say that Capt. Bryan is in poor shape, and may be unable to play against Butler. The Butler men look on Franklin's poor condition as simply manufactured bear stories, and McKay will not let his men become over-confident.

While local football critics give Butler a victory by thirty points, the Butler men will go into today's game with the intention of fighting every inch of ground. With a late rain today, a slippery field would greatly hinder Butler's running up a large score. Bob McKay, Butler's quarter back, is in poor shape, and Thomas will replace him if it becomes necessary to remove him from the game. In Grier, Garriott and Stewart Butler has three backs who are hard to beat. Garriott has been dropping the ball over the goal with accuracy anywhere between the thirty and forty-yard lines. The officials chosen for today's game are Siler of Illinois and Jones of Indiana. The two teams will line up as follows:

Butler	Position	Franklin
Eldridge	Left end	Graham
Thomas	Left tackle	Esterline
Barton	Left guard	Johnson
Hartley	Center	Moore
Wolfe	Right guard	Boyer
Leukhart	Right tackle	Burgess
Stiffler	Right end	Nichols
McKay	Quarter	Bryan, Ritchey
Garriott	Right half	Babcock
Stewart	Full	Brown

FRANKLIN IS CRIPPLED.

Number of Substitutes Will Play Against Butler, Oct.

FRANKLIN, Ind., Oct. 23.—The locals will meet Butler tomorrow with the team crippled worse than it has been at any time this year. There are a number of subs in the lineup and the chances are heavily against the blue and white.

GREAT CROWD FOR RACES

NEW YORK HOTELS FILLED

VANDERBILT CUP CONTEST PROBABLY WILL BE WITNESSED BY THE GREATEST CROWD EVER AT THE EVENT.

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—Tonight, for all practical purposes, the universe means, to some 200,000 enthusiasts, nothing more than a few square miles of country encompassed within the Long Island country roads, and the new motor parkway, over which tomorrow's Vanderbilt cup race is to be run.

The impression that the race begins at dawn is as far removed from being correct as anything could possibly be. The real start was made tonight in Manhattan, where, at as early as 10 o'clock, the procession formed in Herald Square and thousands turned their faces toward the ferry.

Along the Great White Way it was a night of revelry, there was to be no sleep. Every hotel had been filled to overflowing and kept their lights unceasingly burning, like vestal fires. Here, in the early hours of the evening, the revellers sat, discussing the chances of their respective favorites.

Of the drivers who will start at daybreak only four—Chevrolet, Lutgen, Lytle and Keene—have ever started a car in a Vanderbilt. It will be a contest of new drivers and cars, but the element of peril will be as great as ever.

Many at Long Island.

Before lights were out at the theaters, and in spite of lowering skies that threatened rain, the streets and avenues leading to the Long Island ferry were alive with the drone, hum, rattle and snort of glistening automobiles pouring in from every direction. Never before in the history of the sport have as many automobiles invaded peaceful Long Island in one night as crossed over tonight.

Once safely across, the race for positions of vantage along the course began. Through Long Island City, Winfield, Elmhurst, Jamaica, Hyde Park and Hempstead the caravan thundered on with a metallic clatter that robbed the hours of sleep.

The amateur soldiers of the Irish Volunteers Regiment had already taken up their stations around the course, when the first cars arrived and the first trains unloaded their eager, struggling human freight. Enterprising farmers with frontage on the course raised insistent cries of "parking space, best location on the course, get your parking space."

Rudimentary grand stands yawned from the roadside, as yet unfilled. Everywhere, with strident voice, were hucksters offering sandwiches and coffee at unmentionable prices.

Within the fenced in limits of the cement parkway the scenes were more orderly. Here, only the holders of grand stand tickets and lessees of special parkway spaces could penetrate these and program men, who yelled their wares lustily.

The hour of the start is 6:30 and 28.06 miles are to be covered in eleven times around a circuit of 23.16 miles.

Following are the entries for the race: James Florida, driver; car, Locomobile; nationality, American; entered by factory. Alfred Denison, driver.

GOV. IS IN NO HURRY

SAYS MILITIA IS UNNECESSARY

WILLSON'S ACTION CAUSES LATONIA JOCKEY CLUB OFFICIALS TO TAKE RENEWED HOPE—THINK FALL MEETING IS ASSURED.

CINCINNATI, O., Oct. 23.—In the opinion of the management of the Latonia Jockey Club the twenty-four-day meeting is certain to be completed, since Governor Willson has taken the case under advisement and stated that there is absolutely no necessity of sending the militia to the Kent County track.

Attorney McQuown, representing the State Racing Commission, went to Covington from Frankfort this afternoon with Attorney Meyers of the Latonia Association for the purpose of assisting in pushing a test case of the power of the commission to revoke the race track's license through the court. Facts in the case will be agreed to and brought before the Court of Appeals at Frankfort as soon as possible.

Three favorites won today, two of which were at almost prohibitive odds. A drizzling rain fell most of the afternoon, but a good crowd was present. Miss Sain won the feature event easily after allowing Al Muller to make the pace into the stretch. The track was sloppy. Summaries:

First race, 5 furlongs—Winter Green, 105 (E. Martin), 3 to 5 straight, out place and show; Be Brieuf, Col. Blue; time, 1:00 4-5. Second, 5 furlongs—Dr. Barkley, 110 (Troxler), 2 to 1 straight, 7 to 10 place, out show; Home Run, Harriet Rowe; time, 1:01. Third, 1 mile—French Nun, 105 (Deverlich), 15 to 1 straight, 6 to 1 place 3 to 1 show; Sorrel Top, Maid Militant; time, 1:43 4-5. Fourth, 3/4 mile—Miss Sain, 110 (Troxler), 7 to 5 straight, 2 to 5 place, out show; Al Muller, Sally Preston; time, 1:13 3-5. Fifth, 1 1/16 miles—Enlist, 98 (Kennedy), 12 to 1 straight, 5 to 1 place, 2 to 1 show; Gresham, Stone Street; time, 1:50 3-5. Sixth, 1 mile and 1/4 furlong—Mortiboy, 107 (Glassner), 2 to 3 straight, 1 to 3 place, out show; Huerfano, Sea Salt; time, 1:55 3-5.

Women's Championship Lies Between New York and Fall City, Mass.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—The women's national golf championship now lies between the representatives of New York city and Fall River, Mass. This was determined as the result of today's tournament over the Chevy Chase golf links, when Mrs. T. H. Polhemus of the Richmond County Club was victorious over Miss Marion Oliver of the Chevy Chase Club by a score of 4 up and 2 to play, and Mrs. Caleb F. Fox of the Huntington Valley Country Club, Philadelphia, was defeated by Miss Katherine C. Harley of the Fall River (Mass.) Golf Club by 1 up. Today's tourney was the first match of the semi-final rounds.

The performance of Miss Harley was the feature. Her steadiness of approach play was almost perfect and was directly accountable for her defeat of the veteran Philadelphia title holder in 1904. The defeat of Miss Oliver was a great disappointment here, as she was picked as a likely contestant in the finals. Scores: Mrs. T. H. Polhemus defeated Miss Marion Oliver, 4 up and 2 to play. Miss Katherine Harley defeated Mrs. Caleb F. Fox, 1 up.

MT. VERNON, Ind., Oct. 23.—Fully 8,000 persons from all over Posey County and many of them coming from the surrounding territory in Illinois thronged the streets of the little town of New Harmony, in northern Posey County, Wednesday to witness the ninth annual horse show. The people of New Harmony made a special effort this year to excel all former shows, and the weather conditions for the show were ideal. The promoters of the show were Alfred Rebyere of New Harmony, who has the distinction of being the Corn King of southern Indiana, and George Taylor, a well-known young attorney of that city. The following are the prize winners:

PLAY GREENFIELD NATIONALS.

Marlon Club Eleven Has Hard Game for Tomorrow at Capital.

The Greenfield football team has been scheduled to play the strong Marlon Club eleven at Capital City Park tomorrow afternoon, and the local gridiron stars are promised another good contest. Several changes have been made in the lineup of the visiting team and it has been greatly strengthened.

The teams are about as evenly matched as could be desired, and tomorrow's contest should be a big factor in determining the state championship, which the Marlon Club eleven is after this season. This will be the third game of the season in which the Republicans have appeared, the other two contests having been victories for the clubmen.

At a meeting and practice of the team last night, the new uniforms were delivered, and tomorrow's appearance will be the first in uniform. Fast signal practice and scrimmage work were indulged in last night and Coach McKinney reports the team in the best of shape for tomorrow's encounter.
