SOX BEAT NAPS AGAIN AUTO RACE ON TODAY

BERNHARD IS FOUND EASILY SEVENTEEN IN CUP CONTEST

White and Smith Hold Cleveland Safe—Rohe and Hahn Lead With Stick.

Great Crowd Is on Hand to See Battle for the Vanderbilt Trophy.

CHICAGO, Oct. 5.—The latent forces of the White Sox were given another opportunity to display their skill today and the hapless Naps were beaten at all points of the compass. Vice Generalissimo "Jiggs" Donohue and his cohorts downed the show-money team 9 to 5.

As a post-championship game it was a pleasing spectacle to the adherents of the Sox the so-called hitless wonders wielding the big stick with Rooseveltian vigor.

Hahn and Rohe led the attack, each of them landing on big Bill Bernhard for four singles. The doughty little felder deserved a wide brimmed halo for the most spectacular catch of the day. Reversing his engines in the fourth inning he raced back and going at full speed nailed a long and dangerous fly from Bernhard's bat. He was close to the circus seats and climbed over four of them, but stuck to the ball, escaping with a bruise on his right side. Capt. LaJole made two singles and a slashing double to left field.

"Doc" White was sent to the slab because he needed the practice. The Naps found him in five of the six innings he pitched for a total of nine hits. With the score standing 5 to 2, Smith was sent to bat for the dentist.

Tannehill had opened Chicago's sixth inning with a single to left and Dundon was safe on a fumble by LaJole. Then Smith, batting in place of White, sent a two-bagger to Caffyn's territory and two runs came home. Still the cannonading continued. Hahn cutting a fast one into right and Smith reaching home. Bernhard passed O'Neil only to have Rohe slam the ball to far center for three bases, bringing home the fifth tally.

Donohue pulled a corker to right field and Dougherty sacrificed, being the first man out. Towne was two-thirds out when he blazed away at a wild pitch near his feet. The ball went to the stands. Jiggs coming home and Jay going to second. Tannehill, coming up for the second time, flew to Caffyn and Dundon hit to LaJole for an easy out. This was enough pyrotechnics for the hitless sluggers. MINEOLA, N. Y., Oct. 5.—Seventeen high-power automobile racing machines will start tomorrow morning at 6 o'clock when the first faint streaks of day appear in the east in the third international race for the William K. Vanderbilt Jr. cup. The course, which begins at a point near Westbury on the Jericho turnpike, leads over some of the best roads of Long Island and is practically a rectangle measuring 29.21 miles along the outer lines.

The course will be traversed ten times, making the distance of the race 297.5 miles. There is a great dip in the course leading down to the so-called hairpin turn which is regarded as one of the greatest danger points along the course, though there are a number of other especially short turns at any of which an incautious driver may come to grief.

Lately the American and foreign drivers have been taking these turns at a speed of less than twenty-five miles an hour and there is a general belief that they will not hazard their lives or those of the spectators by greater speed in the race tomorrow.

There are numerous long stretches where the speed of cars is expected to reach eighty miles an hour or more.

Keene Car Out.

Originally eighteen cars were scheduled to start in the race, five representing America, five representing France, a similar number from Italy and three from Germany. One of the German cars entered and scheduled to be driven by Foxhall Keene was officially declared out of the contest today when Mr. Keene did not "weigh in" with the rest of the field. Several days ago a pair of cylinders in Mr. Keene's car were cracked and he was unable to secure another pair in this country.

The cars will be sent away at one minute intervals. Their time will be taken from the minute assigned to them, whether they are able to start or not. The order, name of the driver and team to which he belongs follows:

No.	Driver	Team	H. P.
1	Leblon	American	115
2	Heath	French	120
3	Jeanezy	German	120
4	Lancia	Italian	120
5	Lawwell	American	110
6	Shepard	French	130
7	Luytgen	German	120
8	Nazzaro	Italian	120

15	Wellschott	Italian	120
16	Christie	American	120
17	Duray	American	120
18	Fabray	Italian	120

There is no No. 13. It will be noted this year, although the superstition was disregarded in the races in 1904 and 1905. On those occasions, however, car No. 13 broke down.

All of the seventeen cars that are to start tomorrow weighed before the race committee here this afternoon. All proved to be well within the weight limit of 2,204 pounds.

Many Visitors on Hand.

In anticipation of the race thousands of automobiles came into Long Island, the roads leading from the Brooklyn and Long Island City terminals being choked with cars until late tonight. In Garden City, where the Vanderbilt Cup commission maintains its headquarters, more than 3,000 automobiles are packed in front of the hotels.

Their throbbing machinery and horns made sleep impossible even to those who could secure hotel accommodations. Tents have been pitched at various points along the cup course and in these scores are sleeping tonight. Others are sleeping on the lawns or in their automobiles.

The course itself is lined with sleepers. All will be astir by 4 o'clock a. m., however, when the pilgrimage to vantage points will begin. Many thousands of
