Grieves for Her Dog "Tip" in Hospital.

NEW YORK, May 17.—Mrs. Alfred G. Vanderbilt was greatly grieved on learning that her valuable Irish setter, Tip, was at the dog hospital of Dr. Horseman, being treated for an injured eye. The wound was inflicted by a big mastiff belonging to Mrs. Vanderbilt's mother. Mrs. Vanderbilt has ordered that Tip's life be saved at all cost, and Dr. Horseman is devoting his entire attention to the dog.
