

Cornell

Pulls Way to Victory in Intercollegiate Boat Races

Tennis

CORNELL'S CREWS

Wheeler-Schebler, Wheeler-Schebler Trophy, Frank Wheeler, George Schebler.

SYRACUSE IS SECOND BEST

consin. Only Western Representative, Scores Two Fourth Places in Events Entered.

HOW CREWS FINISHED.

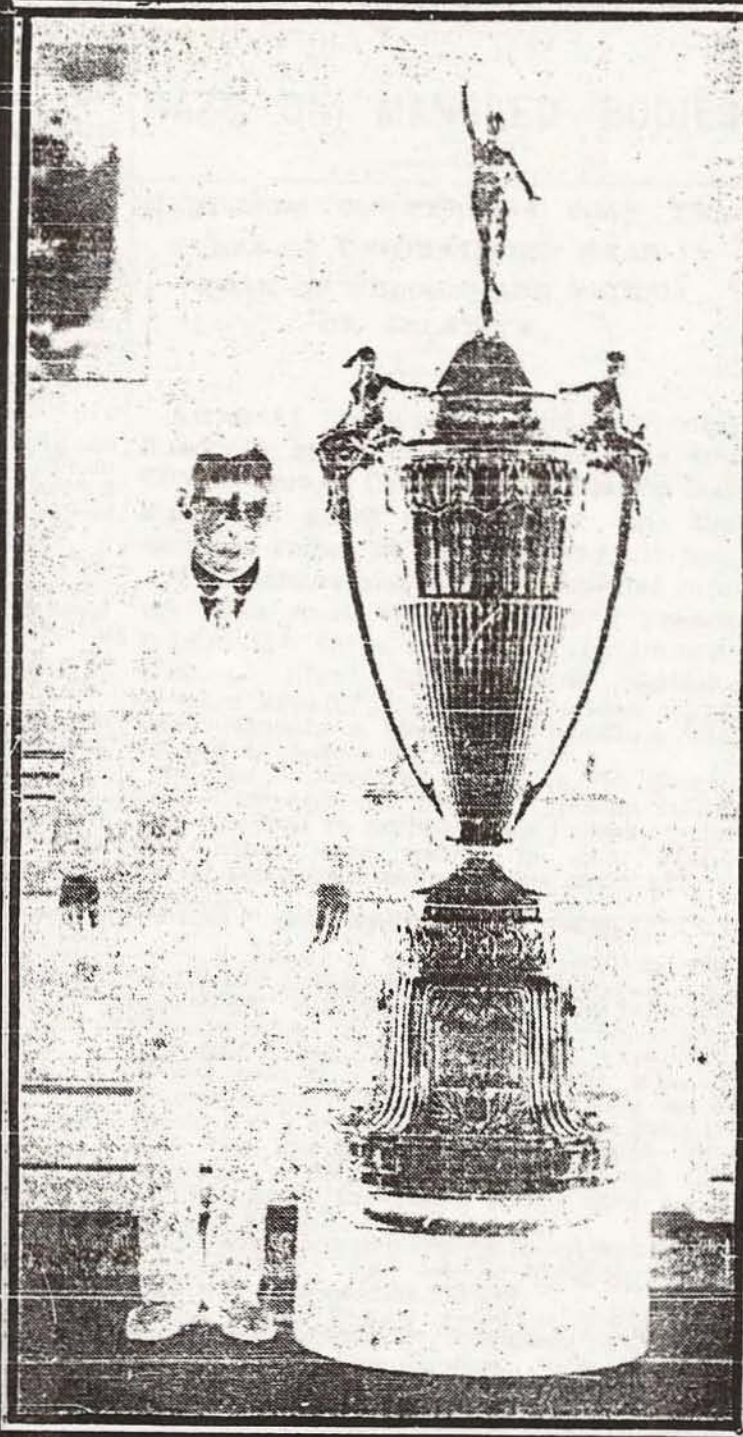

Varsity eight-oared shells (4 miles): Cornell, 19:02; Columbia, 19:04 2-5; Syracuse, 19:15 1-5; Wisconsin, 19:24 1-5; Pennsylvania, 19:57 1-5. Varsity four-oared shells (2 miles): Cornell, 10:01; Syracuse, 10:10; Columbia, 10:17; Pennsylvania, 10:27. Freshman eight oared shells (4 miles): Cornell, 9:07 3-5; Syracuse, 9:14 4-5; Pennsylvania, 9:21; Wisconsin, 9:33 4-5; Columbia, 9:36.

ROCKY HILLS, N. Y., July 2.—This Cornell's day on the Hudson as depicted yesterday was Harvard's on the Thames. Her stalwart crews made a sweep of the fifteenth annual regatta of the Intercollegiate Rowing Association, just as those of her sister institutions in New England won over Yale at London. But Cornell did more than the crews of the other four universities represented in today's races. She established two records for the two-mile race, one in the varsity four-oared and another in the freshman eight-oared. Altogether it was a great day for the collegians from Ithaca and they are celebrating in true Cornell style.

Their sweeping victory was not unexpected. From the time its shells first appeared in practice on the Hudson for the regatta its crews were picked to win. It is conceded that Cornell would take the four-oared race and probably the eight-oared race, but there was some doubt as to the varsity event, the big race of the regatta. As was predicted, this proved to be the hardest contest, the other two being won in rather an easy fashion. In the varsity eight-oared competition, Cornell met a stubborn and unyielding contender in Columbia, and it was the stamina and great rowing ability of Cornell's crew to poke the bow of the Columbia across the finish line a scant few inches in the lead. In the four-oared race Cornell won easily, three lengths from Syracuse, and in the freshman eight-oared race also from Syracuse.

The official time in this particular race indicated that Cornell's lead over Syracuse at the finish was more than a hundred yards in the opinion of scores of spectators. An error was made, but there was no change in the time as originally given out by the officials. The unofficial time in the freshman race was 9:14. Thus Cornell lowered two records for the varsity four-oared race by 14 2-5 seconds and the freshman race by 10 2-5 seconds. A strong wind and a favorable tide is partly responsible for the fast time in the first two races. Before the varsity race was called the wind had died down to a light breeze and the tide had

World's Greatest Motor Trophy.

WHEELER-SCHEBLER TROPHY.

The finest trophy ever offered for a sporting event is now in this city, to be given during the automobile races to take place on the local speedway in August. It is the gift of the Wheeler & Schebler Carburetor Company, and is valued at about $10,000. It stands eight feet six inches high and contains $5,000 worth of silver. It is of Tiffany design, showing exquisite workmanship, being solid Dutch sterling silver. It weighs 600 pounds. This handsome trophy will be exhibited in the show window of L. S. Ayres Company tomorrow and until Tuesday, when it will be shipped to Detroit, Michigan, to be displayed until after the children's tour starts. It was received here from New York yesterday. The relative size of the trophy is shown by the height of W. G. Schebler.

Syracuse and Columbia close up. Scarcely had the word time to say, "Pennsyl-

SURPRISES MARK SPORT

TENNIS PLAYERS GET START

OPENING ROUND FOR THE CITY CHAMPIONSHIP CAUSES A NUMBER OF "SHARKS" TO GO DOWN TO UNEXPECTED DEFEAT.

The opening round of the city championship tennis tournament was begun on the courts of the Indianapolis Tennis Association yesterday afternoon and was marked by many surprises. Rice defeated Rose, the former intercollegiate champion of the state, in a match which was closely contested.

Haggood defeated Wright, the southern Illinois champion, and Kingsbury defeated Orme. The latter match was the great surprise of the day, as it was generally conceded that Orme is a stronger player. However, one of the great evils of tennis befell the big fellow, and he had a complete reversal of form and only at times did he show flashes of his true strength.

In the doubles with Trask, Orme hit his stride and put up a strong game. This combination won in the doubles from Wilson and Mann 6-2 and 6-4. They are the favorites for winning the championship in this event.

The attendance for the opening play of the tournament was all that could be expected, and there was considerable interest manifested among the spectators. The play will be resumed at 2 o'clock this afternoon. The scores:

- FIRST ROUND—SINGLES: Appel beat Walker, 6-3, 6-1; McKay beat Bixby, 7-5, 6-1; Thomas beat Sutphin, 6-3, 6-2; Kingsbury beat Orme, 6-2, 6-8, 8-6; Haggood beat Wright, 6-2, 6-1; Rice beat Rose, 7-5, 6-4; Mann beat Wilson, 6-1, 6-0.

FIRST ROUND—DOUBLES: Orme and Trask beat Wilson and Mann, 6-2, 6-4.

LAVIN REPEATEDLY FLOORS GARDNER DURING FIGHT

Keeps Cincinnati Rival From Hitting Him During Three Farce Comedy Rounds.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., July 2.—Helpless as a child in the hands of his opponent, Gus Gardner of Cincinnati was saved a trip to dreamland via the Paddy Lavin route tonight after the Buffalo boxer beat repeatedly spored him with his terrific left jab to the face and neck.

Gardner's seconds threw up the sponge in the third round of a ten-round bout before the Terre Haute Athletic Club. Lavin never allowed Gardner to hit him during the three farce-comedy rounds, but showed wonderful footwork and ability to land a telling punch whenever he wished. The Cincinnati boxer was plainly outclassed from going to sponge.

In the preliminaries Willie Riley of Indianapolis knocked out Bill Steve of Terre Haute in the third round.

Bull Conway of Terre Haute and Hunkie Dan of Cincinnati went eight grueling rounds to a draw, though the latter had a shade the best. Referee Hugh McCann stopped a bout between Jack Dillon of Indianapolis and Tommy Scanlon of Brazil, Ind., in the seventh round when Scanlon was all but out.

PARDELLO RETURNS FOR GO.

Italian Wrestler Ready to Meet Olson at Empire Tonight.

Leo Pardello returned to town from Chicago yesterday afternoon, and is ready for his match with Olson at the Empire Theater tonight, when the men will meet for the third time in a Polish match. It should definitely settle the question of supremacy between them. Both are confident, Olson especially so by reason of his two victories over the Italian.

"I am going to beat Olson this time," said Pardello. "Mark my words, I'll trim him, and do it easy. I know he has two victories over me, but give me a fair referee and I'll

LAZARUS BUILDS GARAGE