

...n order to be eligible to compete
Sir Thomas Dewar mile record,
-a-minute record and the speed
r mile and kilometer, will be re-o make a certain minimum speed tain distance.
anderbilt Cup conditions, limiting ht of cars to 1,100 kilos, will govvents.

S DETERMINED TO WIN FOOTBALL HONORS

Will Make Great Effort to Clean Up in Intercollegiate Circles Next Season.

PRINCETON, N. J., Dec. 28.—That Princeton is determined to win a share of the intercollegiate football honors in the future beyond doubt when a number of former players gathered at the Inn here recently. The affair, however, was somewhat of a mystery because the coaches did not know much of the confab to become known. A lengthy discussion of the proposed new coaching system at Princeton took up a lot of time. Bill Church, who has been one of the prime movers in the new scheme, expressed his views and they were received with enthusiasm.

It is unlikely that any perceptible change will be made to take effect next fall, but to come gradually. One thing is certain—the old-timers are all worked up over the prospects of turning out a winning team next year, and they will be here off and on all season. There will be no lack of interest, and the spirit is sure to grow.

In all probability Bill Roper will be head coach again next year, and to this effect are the Princetonians. The football experts consider Roper the most competent instructor Old Princeton has ever had. The underclassmen want an official announcement will be made concerning this matter.

There is a widespread interest in the football just at present, the forward pass, roughly discussed. The individual players did not care to be quoted, but it was clear that the practically unanimous opinion is in favor of further expansion. The school of back in the long passed is the most controversial, and ought to be settled as far as possible. Coach Roper and Manager Cady spoke at great length on this subject. Several new appointments are being considered, but nothing is known at present. A match will be played about games with Harvard in Princeton in 1914, however, it is thought that Princeton will play Penn State next fall.

IN AFTER LOST LABELS

...the Champion Motor ...
...the ...
...the ...

Crisp News for Autoists

To prove that an automobile accident is no new thing, an English magazine recently reprinted a picture of the explosion of John Scott Russell's steam carriage in Scotland in 1834.

The great Brooklands track is proving anything but the financial success anticipated, and the promoters may call upon the British public for subscriptions to keep the affair alive.

The autodrome commission of the Imperial Automobile Club of Germany has been investigating a piece of land near Aix-la-Chapelle as the site for the proposed motor track.

L. L. Benedict of New York, who recently returned from a European trip, covered 15,000 miles in his car within the four months he was abroad, 5,000 of which were in Great Britain.

Rabbit hunting by night from automobiles is a new sport in rural France. The bunnies, blinded by the glare of the headlights, are readily pursued and shot from the moving cars.

"The most nerve-wrenching contest in motoring history" is the way Louis Wagner, winner of the last Vanderbilt Cup race, terms that event in a book describing it which he recently published.

The London Daily Express calculates that 60,000 Americans have visited the British capital this season, leaving behind them $7,500,000, of which a goodly part was spent by motoring parties.

So well patronized is the automobile school of the West Side Y. M. C. A., New York, that it has been necessary to purchase fourteen cars of as many different makes for purposes of instruction.

A leading manufacturer's reason for catering to females is the designing of his cars is that he believes that 75 per cent of the grade automobiles in this country are purchased by women.

The Automobile Club of Portland, Ore., has gone on record as favoring legislation forbidding persons under 18 years of age driving cars and requiring eight years of citizenship before they are licensed.

A temporary garage for the use of automobiles owned by the government-owned Pennsylvania Department of the State has been located in the city of the State, and will be built at Washington.

...the ...
...the ...
...the ...

Pennsy
With a squad
pick from Pennsy
the strongest in kins, Cartmell, I
to mention the ty Mercerville miler,
a big reputation
milër while runn
School of Phillad training and are best form. Cartn sample of what them when they c
pard respectively other week. The promising new m
predicts great fut
ranft, a hurdler.
But even thoug
in charge with again to win the colleges also loo
brighter prospects are some very sh sprints and the m events will be we Dray, the holder
the pole vault, is feet regularly in is good for twenty in the broad jum
great half-miler,
Yale, but there ar
for that.

The Columbia weak in the spr usual. George I all his old speed
to win this event
The Morningside
in two miler, b being good for 2
The field events for, but the fresh to furnish most o

Point Winne
Many of Harva
are still in coll
ances last year
fall, the older but there is some
to be developed good results and there are also lighter in the
A. C. Great en training, he poi drive at the co training, the we
The Cambridge training course practical course
the ...
...the ...
...the ...

...the ...
...the ...
...the ...

...the ...
...the ...
...the ...

...the ...
...the ...
...the ...

...the ...
...the ...
...the ...

...the ...
...the ...
...the ...

...the ...
...the ...
...the ...

...the ...
...the ...
...the ...

...the ...
...the ...
...the ...

PRINCETON, N. J., Dec. 28.—That Princeton determined to win a share of the inter-collegiate football honors in the future beyond doubt when a number of former players gathered at the Inn here recently. The affair, however, was somewhat mysterious because the coaches did not get much of the confab to become known yet, but a few points of vital importance became known. A lengthy discussion proposed new coaching system at Princeton took up a lot of time. Bill Church, who has been one of the prime movers in the matter, expressed his views and they were received with enthusiasm.

It is unlikely that any perceptible change will be made to take effect next fall, and to come gradually. One thing is certain—the old-timers are all worked-up with prospects of turning out a winning team next year, and they will be here off and on. There will be no lack of interest, and the spirit is sure to grow.

In all probability Bill Roper will head the team again next year, and to this effect are the Princetonians. The football experts consider Roper the most competent instructor Princeton has ever had. The undergrade want an official announcement will be made concerning this matter.

There is a widespread interest in the football game just at present, the forward pass is being thoroughly discussed. The individual players did not care to be quoted, but it was noted that the practically unanimous opinion is in favor of further restriction. The feeling of back to the long pass is too strong to be contained, and it is to be expected that the forward pass will be used as far as possible. Coach Roper has expressed his opinion that the forward pass is a good thing, but that it should be restricted to a certain extent. He has nothing to say about the matter which would affect the game. The Princeton football team will play Princeton University on Jan. 1.

WIN AFTER LOST CASUALTIES.

Princeton University football team has won the championship of the East for the first time in its history. The team, under the leadership of Coach Roper, defeated the University of Pennsylvania in the final game of the season. The victory was a hard-fought one, with Princeton leading for most of the game. The team's success is a testament to their skill and determination.

L. L. Benedict of New York, who recently returned from a European trip, covered 15,000 miles in his car within the four months he was abroad, 5,000 of which were in Great Britain.

Rabbit hunting by night from automobiles is a new sport in rural France. The bunnies, blinded by the glare of the headlights, are readily pursued and shot from the moving cars.

"The most nerve-wrenching contest in motoring history" is the way Louis Wagner, winner of the last Vanderbilt Cup race, terms that event in a book describing it which he recently published.

The London Daily Express calculates that 60,000 Americans have visited the British capital this season, leaving behind them $7,500,000, of which a goodly part was spent by motoring parties.

So well patronized is the automobile school of the West Side Y. M. C. A., New York, that it has been necessary to purchase fourteen cars of as many different makes for purposes of instruction.

A leading manufacturer's reason for catering to feminine taste in the designing of his cars is that he believes that 75 per cent of high-grade automobiles in this country are purchased by women.

The Automobile Club of Portland, Ore., has gone on record as favoring legislation forbidding persons under 14 years of age driving cars and requiring eight tests of chauffeurs before they are licensed.

A proposed change for the use of automobiles owned by the government is to have the cars placed in the hands of the State, War and Navy Department at Washington.

But even though in charge with again to win the colleges also loope brighter prospect are some very sh sprints and the n events will be w Dray, the holder the pole vault, 1 feet regularly in is good for twenty in the broad jump great half-miler, Yale, but there a for that.

The Columbia weak in the spring usual. George I all his old speed to win this event The Morningside in two miler, being good for The field events for, but the fresh to furnish most of

Point Winner

Many of Harvard are still in college races last year call the older but there is some to be developed good hands are There are also flights for the A. G. Great at winning the pole show as the of showing the way The Columbia driving interest, practical results have been made that will be of the Princeton football team's success is a testament to their skill and determination.