Vice President Guest of Honor at Banquet of Fellowship Club in Chicago.
FOUR ADDRESSES IN ONE DAY
Most Elaborate St. Patrick's Day Celebration Held in Country.

CHICAGO, March 18.—Following the launching of the Illinois boom of the Vice President Fairbanks for the presidency last night by prominent Republicans and business men of this State, the Vice President was the center of attraction today in a series of receptions and addresses, under the auspices of the Irish Fellowship Club, which started at 9:30 o'clock this morning and closed with a banquet at the Auditorium tonight.

The banquet held at the Auditorium was, according to its promoters, the most elaborate celebration of St. Patrick's day ever held in this country. Vice President Fairbanks was the guest of honor and came to deliver the chief address of the day. He was greeted in the banquet hall by fully 500 members of the club and by many women were present. The hall was profusely decorated with the stars and stripes and with the green flag bearing the golden harp.

The banquet was preceded by a reception held in the parlors of the hotel, which was the better part of an hour. Fairbanks was greeted by the majority of the club members and by several hundred others who came merely for the reception and did not remain for the later festivities. The banquet proper was presided over by the president of the club, Henry J. O'Connell, who introduced the Vice President.

Following the song the Rev. Henry J. O'Connell, president of the club, introduced the Vice President. He then introduced the Vice President, who delivered the chief address of the day. He was greeted in the banquet hall by fully 500 members of the club and by many women were present. The hall was profusely decorated with the stars and stripes and with the green flag bearing the golden harp.

TESTIMONY IN THAW TRIAL TO END TODAY
Verdict by Friday Night in Celebrated Murder Case is Now Confidently Expected.

NEW YORK, March 18.—When the new trial was adjourned this afternoon there remained but four expert witnesses to be examined before the taking of evidence closed. Three experts were disposed of today in a little more than an hour, so that it is generally believed the last word of evidence may be uttered in the famous case tomorrow. In that event the summing up by Mr. Delmas for the defense will begin Wednesday morning. District Attorney Jerome will reply on Thursday. Justice Fitzgerald may pronounce immediately with his charge to the jury, or he may defer it until Friday.

Under the circumstances it appears there should be a verdict by Friday night.

The case for the people was finally closed today by the introduction of the most discussed Hermal affidavit which was the story of the making of the Hermal affidavit. The affidavit was read in full to the jury. The affidavit proved a surprise only in the alleged severity of the assault Harry H. Thaw is said to have made upon the person of Mrs. Delmas. Buyers and Sightseers Attracted to the City.

Ten thousand interested spectators in Monument Place and along the principal thoroughfares, the honk-honk of scores of horns and the splendid display of more than 200 automobiles in imposing pageant yesterday afternoon proclaimed the first annual opening of Indianapolis automobile dealers.

Shortly after noon touring cars, runabouts, roadsters and machines of every kind and description began to spin around Monument Place like so many horses ready for exhibit. As the cars lined up around the circle throngs of people flocked to the Monument plaza, making one of the most spectacular scenes perhaps in the history of the city.

New cars added much to the pompous show. By far the greater number of machines were of the 1907 model, and, with the bright sunshine, the scene was dazzling. The great number of new machines, too, was an interesting feature to the spectators, showing beyond a doubt that automobilism is growing by leaps and bounds.

Finally, after all the machines had found their proper places, Mayor Bookwalter's car came spinning into sight, and this was the signal for the start.

Led by the city's chief executive the magnificent line moved west on Market street to Senate avenue, and then south to Washington street. On Washington street the procession was hailed by hundreds. Interest could not have been more intense perhaps had it been a circus day. The sidewalks were crowded, and out of the crush could be heard comments of admiration as various cars passed by.

A complete tour of the business thoroughfares was made and the gay decorations of the garages greeted the line. From the business section of the city the procession made its way north on Delaware street to Sixteenth street, not denying the residence section a peep at the show. Back again to the central part of the city, and then the parade was disbanded and the machines were hurried away to their various fields of duty.

de to Ask Roosevelt to Re- in Away From Lawton Mon- ument Dedication.

The committee on arrangements for the advance of Memorial day in Indianapolis will appeal to President Roosevelt to come to Indianapolis the day for unveiling of the Lawton monument.

President will be fully advised of attitude of the G. A. R. in Indiana of Governor Hanly's refusal to postpone the unveiling until the following day.
Following a heated discussion at the meeting of the general committee at the G. A. R. headquarters last night a committee was appointed to draw up a set of resolutions protesting to the Governor and the President against the unveiling of the Lawton monument on Decoration day. This committee consists of Mr. Landers, Frank Hay and Col. J. R.
Hoyt. The resolution will be presented at the next meeting of the committee on Monday night, April 1.

During the discussion last night Governor Hanly was bitterly denounced. It was suggested that he needed "sitting down." The question was not brought up until after the meeting adjourned, the Hanly sympathizers trying to hold it off as long as possible.

The subject was brought up by A. J.
Hannan of George H. Chapman Post, suggested the adoption of the resolution. W. D. Green, chairman of the committee, tried to have the question postponed, but could not stay the storm, so he turned the gavel over to Z. T. Landers.

Would "Sit Down on Governor."

"It looks to me as being cowardly," said Mr. Landers, "if this committee does not protest against the Lawton unveiling being held on Decoration day. The men of Greenfield, Lebanon and other places want to attend that unveiling, but they do that they will have to neglect their graves at home. No matter at what the exercises should be held we are busy here in Indianapolis. Coming from various posts have called on the Governor and have been rebuffed.
I saw Admiral Brown after he came on the Governor he was about as under the collar as a man could be.
Would he would appeal to the President personally. The Governor seems to be calling the matter, and he needs to sit down upon. We do not have to elect him. He is our representative. We will elect him."

After the committee was appointed to the resolution by Chairman Green, returned to the chair, Mr. Landers said that the resolutions will be "about as strong as we can make them."

"You do that," said E. J. Saverage, "and you are liable to get a black eye," insisting that if the Governor is opposed to the unveiling of the old soldiers may not get on for which they were applicants.
Well," said Landers, "we have received a good many black eyes and we are still alive."

D. Green was chosen chairman of the general committee for Memorial day, Ida M. Morrison vice chairman and H. Calvert secretary. The chairman named the following as members of the committee on speakers: W. N.
Drill, J. R. Fesler and W. G. Sales.

Other committees appointed were those of: Transportation, D. H. Olive, O'Haver and Thomas Lewis; music,

Two Hundred Machines in Line.

In numbers the display was beyond expectation. There are about 800 machines in the city and 200 of these were brought into line. Nearly all were new cars and, strangely enough, few were stock machines. Dealers have few machines in stock. There has been an unprecedented demand on the trade and it was impossible to get many stock cars into the parade.

After the automobile pageant had disbanded the scene of activity was transferred to the garages of the city. These emporiums of gasoline, steam and electric cars have been gayly decorated for what is to be one of the biggest weeks in the automobile history of the city.
Music also lent effect to the brilliant salesrooms.

Altogether it was a most auspicious "first day" of the opening. Men and women, owners of automobiles and those who expect to be owners, all imbued with the ever-increasing popularity of motoring and impelled by the showy and effective parade, hurried to the auto houses to inspect the machines.

Automobile dealers believe that this first day bespeaks great success for the entire opening. All week these automobile concerns will keep open house.
There will be music and flowers for the fair callers and splendid cars for the view of all.

The thoughts of hundreds are turning outward. Several dealers have sold all of certain makes they can get and many of them save contracts for more cars even this early in the season than they received during all of last year.

In a number of cases the opening will decide the wavering ones whether or not they will purchase now, and decide them favorably. For example, S. D.
Potts of Knox & Co. saw the long line of Ford runabouts, a line represented by the Gibson Automobile Company, and as Manager Gibson of that company passed, called to him to deliver one of these at the earliest possible date.

Many Out-of-Town Buyers.

Inquiries from all parts of the State indicate that more prospective buyers will be here this week from out of town than ever before at one time.

"We are all highly pleased with the prospects for an unusually busy week," said Frank Moore of the Fisher Automobile Company. "The opening seemed to stimulate an interest which we thought had already reached the maximum. Today alone, largely on account of the opening, we have made sales of half a dozen machines about which the parties were uncertain."

"The sale of a car during the parade that was made yesterday, the purchaser calling to me while I was driving that he 'wanted one of those right away,' shows," said Cecil Gibson of the Gibson Automobile Company, "the effect that the opening has already had."

"We can already see results in sales as well as in general interest," remarked W. E. Boyd of the Boyd Automobile Company, "and the prospects are that this week we will break the record."

"It was not our fault," said R. J. Irvin of the Capitol Automobile Company, "that we did not have any stock cars in the parade, though we are selling them as fast as they come in; but every one of our drivers was 'knocked out' by service in the endurance run which one of our Wayne models is making. Not only Indianapolis people, but people from every corner of the State, are examining our cars and we have already made sales which can be traced to the opening."

"This is evidence of what we are doing," said S. W. Elston of the Indiana Automobile Company as he pointed to the throng in their salesrooms yesterday afternoon, "and we are going to have still more here. And it's not only people, but

The resolution will be presented next meeting of the committee on Friday night, April 1. During the discussion last night Governor Hanly was bitterly denounced. ## W REASSURES INVESTORS.

Wall Street Panic Due to Psychological, Not Logical, Causes.

NEW YORK, March 18.—At the annual meeting of the South Carolinians of New York at the Waldorf-Astoria tonight Secretary of the Treasury Shaw took occasion to refer to the railroad situation, the recent panic in Wall Street the result of psychological, and not logical, causes. He gave assurance that investment in railroad extensions are safe from the reckless ambition of manipulators.

President Woodrow Wilson of Princeton declared that "we have lost our way in the pursuit of wealth and material power."

Automobile dealers believe that this first day bespeaks great success for the entire opening. All week these automobile concerns will keep open house. There will be music and flowers for the fair callers and splendid cars for the view of all.

In an indirect way, too, the opening will doubtless be to the advantage of the automobile contingent by showing manufacturers all over the country that the Indianapolis dealers are working hard and are having a "show" as best they can with no additional display facilities; so that, perhaps, next year, when a regular full-fledged show proposition is made to the makers of cars in all parts of the country, they will be in a humor to support it.

WILL RETURN TO STAGE LIFE.

Mabelle Gilman to Appear With Carl in "The Hurdy Gurdy Girl."

CHICAGO, March 18.—It is announced here today that Mabelle Gilman will return to the stage within a short time under the professional guidance of Richard Carl and Charles Marks. She will probably make her first reappearance in this country in Boston in the new musical play of Mr. Carl called "The Hurdy Gurdy Girl."
