

getting him again until the fifth, when the Indians annexed two more tallies. Hinchman started off with an infield single, and walked home on Woodruff's triple down the third base line. McCarthy then hit a sacrifice fly to Flick and Woodruff scored. Still another run was rolled up by Sunday Burke's warriors in the sixth, when Ritter tripled to the center field fence and came home on Mowe's timely single to right.

Hens Take Lead in Seventh.

The Mud Hens took the lead in the seventh, when they piled up four runs. Mowe started the trouble by throwing Hinchman's grounder wide to first, and the Toledo manager was safe. Flick then made an infield hit and Hinchman singled, scoring Hinchman. Hohnhorst followed with a double and Flick scored. Link was then stricken and Dowd substituted. Dowd started things by walking Burns, filling the bases. Bronkie forced Burns at second and Hinchman ran to tying the score.

This play should have been a double, for Bronkie appeared to be out at first, but umpire Ferguson, despite the protest of the entire Indianapolis club, called him safe. This put the Indians up in the ninth, and the Hens, while the Indians were in the hall. A moment later Hohnhorst and Bronkie pulled off a fine double steal, Hohnhorst making. Dowd finally retired the side by facing Adams. Toledo annexed three more tallies in the eighth. Dowd started the trouble by walking Bill James, and Mowe made things worse when he dropped Dowd's throw of Niles's attempted sacrifice. Hinchman then advanced both runners in a neat sacrifice, and Flick followed with a triple over first, sending in Bill James and Niles. Flick then came home on Hinchman's long sacrifice fly to Hallman.

The Indians tried to make a Garrison in the ninth, but only made one. Carlsch, battling for Dowd, reached first on Hinchman's error, advanced on Hallman's single, both runners advanced on Woodruff's sacrifice, and Carlsch scored on McCarthy's single. Houser was then walked, filling the bases, but he beat Getz could do was a pop up to Burns, ending the game.

Evans Wins by Default.

PRESTWICK, Scotland, May 30.—Having drawn a bye in the first round, Charles Evans, Jr., of Chicago, the western open golf champion, was an onlooker in the first round of the British amateur championship which started yesterday on the Prestwick links.

The little Chicagoan also will be idle in the second round, his opponent, A. C. Lister, of the Royal Blackheath Club, one of the oldest clubs in England, being indisposed and unable to appear. H. L. Gaw, of Philadelphia, who has played in several of the British championships, also was given a walkover, his opponent, J. B. Stableford, of the Lymington Golf Club, forfeiting.

BOB BURMAN CROWNED FOR DAYTONA VICTORY

GOLD AND PEARL SET HEAD-PIECE SAID TO COST $10,000.

HONORED AS "SPEED KING"

[Special to The Indianapolis News.]

INDIANAPOLIS MOTOR SPEEDWAY. May 30.—The crowning of Wild Bob Burman as the "speed king of the world" brought a burst of applause from the rapidly filling speedway grand stands at 6 o'clock. The crown is of gold, embellished with pearls, and is said to be a duplicate of the one to be used at the coronation of King George of England.

The crown, which is said to have cost $10,000, was presented outright to Burman in recognition of his remarkable speed trials on the Florida sands a few weeks ago, when he broke the world's straight-away record for a mile in 25.40, beating Barney Oldfield's record by nearly a second. Dr. Florida Burman used Firestone tires, and the Firestone company rewarded him with the crown.

Drove in Blitzen Benz.

Burman drove on the track in his Blitzen Benz, the car used in Florida, and the same one with which he broke all track records at the speedway yesterday. Starter Joe Wagner announced through a megaphone the object of his appearance, E. A. Moros, Burman's manager, carried the crown. A. H. Pardington, the official referee, spoke as follows:

"Ladies and Gentlemen—It affords me great pleasure to present to Bob Burman, America's monarch of motoring and the world's speed king, this speed king crown, donated by the Firestone Tire and Rubber Company of Akron, O."

Crown Burman's Property.

"This handsome gift is given outright by H. S. Firestone to Bob Burman for his sensational record performances at Daytona Beach, Fla., and his remarkable driving done on this track yesterday afternoon, when he lowered the free-for-all speedway records for the half mile, kilometer and mile. Burman has shown his willingness to meet the world's most famous drivers in open competition in the world's greatest race over the world's most famous course, and in entering this event considers that any one of the first ten places are sufficient honor for any driver in such a contest."

At the close of the speech, Pardington stepped to the side of the racer and placed the crown on the pilot's head. The crowd cheered when Wild Bob moved away with the headpiece glittering in the sun.

INDIAN VICTORY FROM UNEXPECTED QUARTERS

ROBERTSON'S PITCHING AND MOWE'S HIT WIN FOR TRIBE.

TAKE FIRST FROM HENS, 3-2

[Special to The Indianapolis News.]

TOLEDO, May 30.—Baseball fans are always prepared more or less for the unexpected to happen, but yesterday's victory of the Indians over the Mud Hens, 3 to 2, was certainly a reversal of the form sheet. Robbie Robertson, pitching the brand of ball that earned him a reputation in the Central League, held the sluggers of Armour's crew almost within the hollow of his hand the entire distance, while little Mowe poked out the single that scored two of the tribe's runs.

Robertson's stay with the Indians depended largely on his showing, and he was put to win from the start. He held the Hens hitless during the first five innings, when an error paid the way for two runs in the sixth. After Rapp had
