

ATLANTIC

Work on Holdup Ends Suspended Sentence

Clifford Wicks, age twenty-four, 14 Naomi street, called at court Saturday to report, as one of persons receiving suspended sentences, he remarked that "out of work and I'd just as well sit out tonight and hold up." Less than half an hour later, who recently received a sentence of one to ten years in a Reformatory, was in the cell awaiting a trip to the re-

Hinton, police officer at criminal court, placed him in cell when he made the re-

"I'd rather serve time than work, anyway," Wicks retorted. His father, Andrew Wicks, said he had been surly and complained about the food at his home. Young Clifford that his father, a foreman at a company plant, refused to go back the job he held before his conviction of assault and battery with criminal intent.

ANTS AND WAITS PROMISED STORMS

Temperatures Climb on Third Heated Day.

DEVICES POPULAR

of the cooling thunderstorms appear as predicted, let the day of the early August heat continue unabated in Indianapolis and surrounding territory Saturday. The Indianapolis weather bu-

JAMES A. ALLISON, CAPITALIST, DIES

Son of Printer, Once Newsboy, Then a Millionaire, Is Pneumonia Victim.

LAST ILLNESS IS BRIEF

Indianapolis Engineer, One of Speedway Founders, Was Active in Many Fields.

After an illness of only a few days, James A. Allison, widely-known Indianapolis capitalist and one of the founders of the Indianapolis motor speedway, died Friday evening at his Indianapolis estate, Riverdale, in West Riverside drive, of bronchial pneumonia.

Mr. Allison, age fifty-five, was a widely-known figure in the American automotive world, and also was widely known through his extensive business and real estate holdings in Indianapolis and in Florida. Frugality and keen business acumen enabled him to rise from his first position of messenger boy to that of a millionaire.

He was president of the Allison Engineering Company, a former president of the speedway, a director in the Fletcher American National Bank and was a stockholder or director in a number of other real estate and industrial enterprises.

Funeral services will be held at the estate Monday at 4 p. m. with the Rev. Edwin W. Dunlop, pastor of the

DEVICES POPULAR

of the cooling thunder-appear as predicted, let lay of the early August heat inue unabated in Indiana-surrounding territory Saturthe Indianapolis weather bu-issued a promise of relief y in the form of showers ng breezes.

cury, however, offered dewing no inclination to drop, day forenoon rose steadily ow mark of the last twenty-—72 degrees at 7 a. m. At Friday th temperature stood ees, only 17 degrees below y midafternoon, maximum re of 89 degrees. Almost in the state experienced res of 90 degrees or more.

Friday, the humid atmosstirred by a brisk breeze, the relatively high humid-scorching rays of the sun, was afforded. Thousands sought the coolness of thing beaches and other es Friday night. Numerous apartment dwellers were o have spent the night in park. Roads and boulevards out the city were thronged rists.

m vendors and dispensers of its were reported swamped ess. Some of the ice cream announced that additional gons and trucks had been ie job, while most of the tinued on Page Two.

IC AIRPORT SITE T RECOMMENDED

ent Expert Sets Out
es for Selection.

G SOON FOR CHOICE

He was president of the Allison Engineering Company, a former president of the speedway, a director in the Fletcher American National Bank and was a stockholder or director in a number of other real estate and industrial enterprises.

Funeral services will be held at the estate Monday at 4 p. m. with the Rev. Edwin W. Dunlavy, pastor of the Roberts Park Methodist church, of which Mr. Allison was a member of the board of trustees, officiating.
Pallbearers will be members of the board of directors of the Fletcher American National Bank. Burial will be in Crown Hill cemetery. The services will be marked by simplicity, in accordance with the wishes of Mr.
Allison, as expressed before his death.

Business Activity Brings Illness.

Although he had been in failing health for a number of years, he had kept in active touch with his financial and industrial projects, and his last illness was induced, it was said by his friends, largely to his desire to remain active in the field of his endeavors.

Mr. Allison, Sunday afternoon, was married to his secretary, Miss Lucile Musset, of Miami, at the home of Carl G. Fisher, Montauk Point, Long Island.
The day following he contracted a heavy cold and on Tuesday started on a business trip to Indianapolis. He became seriously ill while on the train and on arriving here Thursday morning, was taken to his home, where his condition steadily grew worse. Mrs.
Allison was at the bedside when the end came.

Mrs. Myra J. Allison, mother of the capitalist, who has been under the care of a physician for more than a month at her apartment in the Marott hotel and who went to her son when he became seriously ill, was confined to her bed and was said to be in a serious condition.

Mr. Allison's illness became grave
Friday and his physicians, Dr. John M. Cunningham, of Indianapolis, and
Dr. E. H. Adkins, of Miami Beach, announced there was little hope for his recovery. His brother, Cornelius Allison, of Indianapolis; his sister, Mrs. Hal Adkinson, of Orlando, Fla.;
his nephew, John Allison; Lem O.
Trotter, his real estate manager, and numerous business and social acquaintances spent the day at the home. Mrs. Allison remained in the 1515. vendors and dispensers of ss. Some of the ice cream nounced that additional ons and trucks had been e job, while most of the Inued on Page Two.

C AIRPORT SITE T RECOMMENDED

ent Expert Sets Out
 es for Selection.

SOON FOR CHOICE

recommending any specific e future Indianapolis air-Tallaferro, department of airport expert, who sur-able sites here recently. al recommendations for an nd discussed the advandisadvantages of a half-In a report received Sat-ne industrial commission of er of Commerce.
 ig of the commission and port board will be held as ssible next week to discuss and select a site that seems e most advantages. In the Colonel Charles A. Lind-l of the technical committranscontinental Air Trans-which is considering Indi-r its central terminal, was voice his opinion on the or the airport from the of his concern. He probe here next week.

Report Returned.
 's general recommenda-
 as follows:

olis burns a tremendous soft coal. The prevailing from south to northwest.

and on Tuesday started on a business trip to Indianapolis. He became seriously ill while on the train
 and on arriving here Thursday morning, was taken to his home, where his condition steadily grew worse. Mrs.
 Allison was at the bedside when the
 end came.

Mrs. Myra J. Allison, mother of the capitalist, who has been under the
 care of a physician for more than a month at her apartment in the Marott
 hotel and who went to her son when
 he became seriously ill, was confined
 to her bed and was said to be in a serious condition.

Mr. Allison's illness became grave
 Friday and his physicians, Dr. John
 M. Cunningham, of Indianapolis, and
 Dr. E. H. Adkins, of Miami Beach,
 announced there was little hope for his recovery. His brother, Cornelius Allison, of Indianapolis; his sister,
 Mrs. Hal Adkinson, of Orlando, Fla.;
 his nephew, John Allison; Lem O.
 Trotter, his real estate manager, and
 numerous business and social acquaintances spent the day at the home. Mrs. Allison remained in the sick room most of the day.

Started Life As Printer.

Mr. Allison had not made his legal residence in Indianapolis for almost ten years. Through the winter he remained at his home on Star Island in Biscayne bay, Miami beach, and his summers were spent at Port Washington, but he made frequent trips to Indianapolis on business.

Mr. Allison was born at Marcellus, Mich., August 11, 1872, the second son of a family of five boys and one girl.
 When about two years old his family moved to South Bend and in 1880 he accompanied his parents to Indianapolis. His father, Noah S. Allison was a printer and operated a small shop in South Meridian street. His sons

Continued on Page Two.

WEATHER INDICATIONS

UNITED STATES WEATHER BUREAU.
Indianapolis, August 4, 1928.
—Temperature—
August 4, 1927.		August 4, 1928.
7 a. m.	63	7 a. m.	74
1 p. m.	77	1 p. m.	—
—Barometer—
7 a. m.	—	—	20.05
Forecast for Indianapolis, Vicinity—Partly cloudy tonight, Sunday probably showers or thunderstorms; somewhat cooler.
Forecast for Indiana—Probably local thunderstorms tonight, Sunday; cooler Sun-farmers, de-arm leader of announced he Smith. John

tenant-Gover-Dickinson.

ISE SEEN.

ress for Need
cit.

ust 4 (A.P.)— many of the
be increased office depart-as been estiar 1929. For umes the con-aster-general, ment probably rt at the end Coolidge unich conditions le law for Mr.
of the rates to le his departunderlying the points to the postal expendivetoed in the ars and which passing over st session con-on two meas-cent. Increase s and another es to fourth-

HASIZED.

loover Backs
ness Aid.

st 4 (A.P.)— as once hav-
n "puts dol-ckets of every
in America,
director of the department of statement last orne out in a
he labor de-
orkers in dry
her countries.
ductivity of
prohibition is,
t economists,"
the most sig-
s production nt prosperity
possible the
to our work-

es and wages bition was f living have the increased

CAPITALIST DIES

Continued from Page One

took over the business when he died in 1890.

James Allison attended the public schools until about twelve years old when he was called to the support of the family. He sold newspapers, held clerical jobs, attended a business school for three months and engaged with his brothers in the printing business. The Allison Coupon Company, a firm still in business, was bolstered up and began to expand steadily.
When, in 1904, Carl G. Fisher organized the Prest-O-Lite Company, Allison cast his lot with the firm and operations were begun in a small building at the outskirts of the city—Twenty-eighth and Pennsylvania streets. As the business of the firm grew Allison with others connected with that enterprise became wealthy.

Led in Speedway Activity.

When the motor speedway was built in 1909 by Fisher, Frank H. Wheeler, Arthur Newby and Allison, the latter was made secretary-treasurer of the firm. He became the directing head of the speedway as president just after the 1923 race and continued in that position until the project was taken over by Edward V. Rickenbacker and associates.

He organized the Allison Engineering Company for automobile experimental work in 1915 and had seen the firm grow into one of the world's foremost experimental stations for airplane engine development. Only recently the firm received a $1,000,000 contract from the government to rebuild Liberty airplane motors.

He became a heavy stockholder in the Fletcher American National Bank and the Fletcher American Company several years ago and was a member of the board of directors of the institutions. He sold his interest in the Prest-O-Lite Company to the Union Carbide Company in 1923 and holds a large block of stock in the latter company.

Owned Florida Real Estate.

Mr. Allison owned extensive properties at Miami Beach, and was owner of considerable stock in Florida real estate developments. Aside from his Riverside estate of eighty acres, his a member of Roberts Park church for a number of years, and gave freely for charitable and church work.

Had Strong Interest in Sports.

Mr. Allison took no more than a citizen's interest in politics, though he counted among his friends, leaders in American politics. Second to his interest in business was his interest in sports, his Star Island residence being a mecca for sport kings the world over. He was a great fisherman and almost daily his yacht plowed the waters of the Gulf Stream in search of deep sea game fish. He attended the annual 500-mile speedway race each year and had a keen interest in automobile racing.

From W. A. Kohlhepp, vice-president of the Carl G. Fisher Properties, Inc., at Miami Beach, came this statement: "Mr. Allison was a pronounced and strong character. He spent large sums of money in scientific research for the betterment of mankind. He had a very brilliant mind and was an original thinker.
His civic enterprise was more than valuable to the greater Miami area.
It will be difficult to adjust ourselves to future activities without his counsel."

NEW MYSTERY NOTE SEEN

Another Death Threat Made Against South Whitley Bank Head.

COLUMBIA CITY, Ind., August 4

(A.P.)—Authorities today were confronted with a new angle in connection with the writing of threatening letters to Harvey Kreider, president of the Farmers State Bank, of South Whitley.

George Archer, age twenty-one, and his cousin, Ben Smith, of South Whitley, were arrested recently on charges of attempting to blackmail Kreider.
Archer, now free under bond, confessed, police said, that Smith had influenced him to write letters to Kreider demanding $6,500.

Late last night Archer found another note in his automobile addressed to Kreider. It threatened death to Kreider and also Archer if Smith, who is still held in the South Whitley Jail, fails to get a suspended sentence. A search of the home of John Smith, brother of Ben, near Larwill, revealed nothing that could be connected with the new note, authorities said.

Onto Valley an thundershowers at week followed by except a period
Thursday. Modera
the week.

Great Lakes R
first half of the w about Wednesday unsettled latter h probably a showe fair again at clos part temperature slightly below at somewhat above n and followed by close.

Upper Mississippi
souri Valleys—Mo and Tuesday; sh middle of week, l fair at close; wa week with temper normal, followed b

WOULD H

Panama Governme
on Elec

PANAMA, Augu

though it appear would be no orga Florentio Harmodi
eral candidate for the election tomorr was going ahead

measures to me which might distu saloons will be clos until noon Sunday

Former Presiden
leader of the par candidacy of Dr. J
urged his follower voting. During the papers supporting charged that the E was endeavoring
American national wife Mrs. Elizabeth
niece of Mrs. Woo

The governor o
has issued the cus employees urging Panama cities unle absolutely necessar

Dr. Arosemena,
leading civil engi
was educated in S many, and has do engineering work countries.

as once hav-
on "puts dol-ckets of every
in America
Director of the Department of
statement last
orne out in a
he labor de-
orkers in dry
her countries.
ductivity of
prohibition is t economists."
the most sig-
is production
nt prosperity
possible the
to our work-

es and wages
hibition was of living have
the increased res of the lathe worker
t. more with he could in f 1913, usual-

O. P.

With Plat-
Made.

st 4 (A.P.)— al committee ions of $98,379 y 31, and ex-

the commit-ement in ac-made by the the platform Copies of e senate and investigating contributions 0, three per-nt, including
h; Dwight F. and Arthur tributors of

firm grow into one of the world's foremost experimental stations for airplane engine development. Only recently the firm received a $1,000,000
contract from the government to rebuild Liberty airplane motors.

He became a heavy stockholder in
the Fletcher American National Bank
and the Fletcher American Company
several years ago and was a member of the board of directors of the institutions. He sold his interest in the Pres-O-Lite Company to the Union
Carbide Company in 1923 and holds
a large block of stock in the latter
company.

Owned Florida Real Estate.

Mr. Allison owned extensive properties at Miami Beach, and was owner
of considerable stock in Florida real estate developments. Aside from his Riverside estate of eighty acres, his only other Indianapolis land holding was a farm of 160 acres west of the speedway.

Mr. Allison was married in 1901 to Miss Sarah Cornelius, daughter of an old Indianapolis family, at Colorado Springs, where she had gone in search of health. She had a daughter by a former marriage, who later became known by her stepfather's name—Cornelia Allison. The marriage was the result of a friendship-romance which began when Allison was a boy. It is said. The Allison's were separated by divorce in June.

The former Mrs. Allison and her daughter, Mrs. Jack Brazier, were visitors at the Allison home Friday and remained for some time at Mr.
Allison's bedside.

Active in Miami Beach Affairs.

Mr. Allison was one of the most widely-known winter residents of Miami Beach and his Star Island mansion was the meeting place for sportsmen, captains of industry and celebrities from all parts of the world.
He took a keen interest in the civic

letters to Harvey Kreider, president
of the Farmers State Bank, of South
Whitley.

George Archer, age twenty-one, and
his cousin, Ben Smith, of South Whitley, were arrested recently on charges
of attempting to blackmail Kreider.
Archer, now free under bond, confessed, police said, that Smith had influenced him to write letters to Kreider demanding $6,500.

Late last night Archer found an-
other note in his automobile addressed
to Kreider. It threatened death to Kreider and also Archer if Smith,
who is still held in the South Whitley Jail, fails to get a suspended sentence. A search of the home of John Smith, brother of Ben, near Larwill,
revealed nothing that could be connected with the new note, authorities
said.

until noon Sunday
former President leader of the pa-
candidacy of Dr. J.
urged his follower
voting. During the
papers supporting
charged that the F
was endeavoring
American national
wife, Mrs. Elizabeth
niece of Mrs. Woo
The governor of
has issued the cus
employees urging a Panama cities un-
absolutely necessar
Dr. Arosemena,
leading civil engi
was educated in Sw many, and has don engineering work i
countries.

Your Future

The uncertainty of the future is largely removed now to save regularly from your income. The stabilization of stated sums with a Strong Trust Company—the Oldest in Indiana—will provide funds successful outcome for your plans and desires.

4% ON SAVINGS

THE INDIANA TRUST

CAPITAL
SURPLUS $2,000,000.00

Ground Floor Safe Deposit Department which the acquired laboratory had been Benedict over the Indiana-bought des-industry one of the city's largest and world known.

Benedict, according to the tale, chuckled in later years, to think that two youths should have had the foresight and business acumen to build fortunes on a patent that Wall street had turned down as impossible.

ringen and veland.

s ran over showing in itures. The is $7,100 to nmittee of diture was "return to aditure was A. Mann, active in as "adverttal to the Mr. Nutt advise that ste records ctions and inspection answer any upon any f contribu- ding Noble ambassador Jr., Chi- D. Marshall Pittsburgh; both Mills or Body.

4 (A.P.)— twenty-two ganizations y that or- s a body, presidential time, how- the organ- ver action individually.

DIES

One

life of that city and was one of the organizers of the committee of 100, which dealt with civic affairs and acted as host in its season meetings to many distinguished and internationally-known persons who visited the resort.

In 1921 he built an aquarium on the shores of Biscayne bay at Miami Beach and within a year a collection of deep sea fish and mammals second only to the aquarium at Naples was opened to the public. The aquarium continued in operation until after the winter season of 1923 when the land on which it was situated became the site for the Floridan hotel controlled by the Meyer-Kiser interests.

Built Allison Hospital.

Two years ago he completed building of the Allison Hospital on Allison island, North Miami Beach, the institution developing into one of the finest hospitals in the south. It now is in the charge of the Order of St. Francis, but negotiations are underway, it is said, to make the hospital a branch of the Kellogg Sanitarium, of Battle Creek, Mich.

He was a director in the First National Bank of Miami Beach, and was regarded as the principal owner of the Miami Ocean View Company, a real estate development corporation with extensive and valuable property holdings.

Mr. Allison had spent vast sums of money in scientific research in backing expeditions of the National Geographic Society, it is said. He gave freely also to other enterprises designed for the betterment of mankind.

As a tribute to his mother, Mr. Allison a few years ago completely redecorated and refitted the Roberts Park Methodist church and presented a great pipe organ to it. He had been a member of Roberts Park church for a number of years, and gave freely for charitable and church work.

Had Strong Interest in Sports.

Mr. Allison took no more than a citizen's interest in politics, though he counted among his friends, leaders in

OTTULO DUZZLO ADAM

Continued from Page One

The site of the building was bought by the school city for $41,000.

If the school board takes action on the suggestion for sale of the property the building and site will have to be sold through bidding.

TO CHOOSE TWO SITES.

School Board to Act For Fairview and Broad Ripple Projects.

Selection of sites for the proposed grade school in the district embraced by the new Butler University campus and for School 80 in Broad Ripple will be made at a special meeting of the Indianapolis school board, Monday afternoon. The board also will award contracts on cafeteria furniture and equipment, and elevators for the new Shortridge High School.

A meeting of the buildings and grounds committee of the board, of which Charles W. Kern is chairman, which will be held preceding the board meeting, is expected to develop a resolution to buy ground at the north-west corner of Fifty-second street and Capitol avenue for the new Elementary School 86 adjoining the north side of the Butler campus. The site has been offered to the board by Gus Schmidt, real estate dealer, for $37,366.32, of which $7,514.12 represents Barrett law assessments. It is estimated that the frontage of 320 feet in Capitol avenue is worth $116 a front foot. The site affords 285.23 feet adjoining Fifty-second street.

The board, it was said, will favor buying a site at Sixty-second and Bellefontaine streets for School 80. Provision for buying of the site and for erection of a new building has been made in the proposed $600,000 bond issue, which awaits the approval of the state tax board. The proposed site has been offered for $26,240.

Week's Weather Outlook

Ohio Valley and Tennessee—Local thundershowers at beginning of the week followed by mostly fair weather except a period of showers about Thursday. Moderately warm most of the week.

AS A tribute to his mother, Mr. Allison a few years ago completely redecorated and refitted the Roberts Park Methodist church and presented a great pipe organ to it. He had been a member of Roberts Park church for a number of years, and gave freely for charitable and church work.

Had Strong Interest in Sports.

Mr. Allison took no more than a citizen's interest in politics, though he counted among his friends, leaders in American politics. Second to his interest in business was his interest in sports, his Star Island residence being a mecca for sport kings the world over. He was a great fisherman and almost daily his yacht plowed the waters of the Gulf Stream in search of deep sea game fish. He attended the annual 500-mile speedway race each year and had a keen interest in automobile racing.

From W. A. Kohlhepp, vice-president of the Carl G. Fisher Properties, Inc., at Miami Beach, came this statement: "Mr. Allison was a pronounced and strong character. He spent large sums of money in scientific research for the betterment of mankind. He had a very brilliant mind and was an original thinker. His civic enterprise was more than valuable to the greater Miami area. It will be difficult to adjust ourselves to future activities without his counsel."

NEW MYSTERY NOTE SEEN

Another Death Threat Made Against South Whitley Bank Head.

COLUMBIA CITY, Ind., August 4 (A.P.)—Authorities today were confronted with a new angle in connection with the writing of threatening letters to Harvey Kreider, president of the Farmers State Bank, of South Whitley.

George Archer, age twenty-one, and his cousin, Ben Smith, of South Whitley, were arrested recently on charges of attempting to blackmail Kreider. Archer, now free under bond, confessed, police said, that Smith had influenced him to write letters to Kreider demanding $6,500.

Late last night Archer found another note in his automobile addressed to Kreider. It threatened death to Kreider and also Archer if Smith, who is still held in the South Whitley Jail, fails to get a suspended sentence. A search of the home of John Smith, brother of Ben, near Larwill,

Week's Weather Outlook

Ohio Valley and Tennessee—Local thundershowers at beginning of the week followed by mostly fair weather except a period of showers about Thursday. Moderately warm most of the week.

Great Lakes Region—Mostly fair first half of the week, except showers about Wednesday in northwest parts; unsettled latter half of week with probably a shower period; probably fair again at close of week in west part; temperatures about normal or slightly below at beginning, rising to somewhat above normal about middle and followed by cooler weather at close.

Upper Mississippi and Lower Missouri Valleys—Mostly fair Monday and Tuesday; shower period about middle of week, followed by mostly fair at close; warmer first half of week with temperature mostly above normal, followed by cooler latter half.

WOULD HAVE PEACE

Panama Government Makes Measures on Election Eve.

PANAMA, August 4 (A.P.)—Although it appeared today that there would be no organized opposition to Florencio Harmodio Arosemena, Liberal candidate for the presidency, in the election tomorrow, the government was going ahead with precautionary measures to meet any emergency which might disturb the peace. All saloons will be closed from noon today until noon Sunday.

Former President Belsario Porras, leader of the party supporting the candidacy of Dr. Jorge Eduardo Boyd, urged his followers to abstain from voting. During the campaign Liberal papers supporting Dr. Arosemena charged that the Boyd-Porras faction was endeavoring to capitalize the American nationality of Dr. Boyd's wife, Mrs. Elizabeth Bolling Boyd, a niece of Mrs. Woodrow Wilson.

The governor of the Canal Zone has issued the customary circular to employes urging all to stay out of Panama cities unless their presence is absolutely necessary.

Dr. Arosemena, who is one of the leading civil engineers of Panama, was educated in Switzerland and Ger-

DIES

One

en he died

the public years old support of apers, held a business and engaged nting busi- Company, is bolstered steadily. her organ- pany, All- firm and a small the city— nnsylvania f the firm connected e wealthy. livity.

y was built I. Wheeler, the latter rer of the coing head t just after ed in that was taken acker and Engineer- le experi- d seen the old's fore- s for air- Only re- $1,000,000 ent to re- ra.

Knholder in onal Bank Company a member the insti- est in the the Union and holds the latter state.

sive prop-