CHAMPION KELLOGG SAYS ALL RECORDS WILL FALL

MOTORCYCLIST TESTS SPEED-
WAY AND IS PLEASED.

PATHFINDER CAR DEPARTS

Stanley T. Kellogg, amateur champion motorcycle rider, today tested the new Indianapolis motor speedway and expressed pleasure and satisfaction with the conditions found there. He later stated the belief that all world's records will fall in the races to be held on Friday and Saturday of next week.

"If the tire equipment is proper the world's records will certainly go on this track," said Kellogg. He is a modest young fellow of twenty-four years, of steady nerves and strong muscles. He is a careful rider who never takes unnecessary chances. According to Kellogg, the danger in motorcycle racing lies in the chance that the machinery will not work properly. The drivers are so expert that they, as a rule, are perfectly safe if their machines respond to their efforts.

With Kellogg when he inspected the speedway today was Fearless Balke, also of the Flying Merkel team. That fellow would drive at full speed through an opening two feet wide, said one of his acquaintances. "He certainly has earned his title as some of his performances on the track have caused thousands of spectators to grow weak and turn pale."

Escort Car Leaves for Cleveland.

The Overland official escort car that will precede the endurance run riders from Cleveland to Indianapolis, starting next Tuesday morning, left Indianapolis for Cleveland this morning, driven by Charles Wallerich. The officials of the run will come from Cleveland in this car. They will precede the motorcycle racers one hour and will make all arrangements for the reception of the latter in the cities and towns through which they will pass.
