CHERRYOLA PROVES SURPRISE

Overtakes Leader at Furlong Pole

and Wins by Three Lengths at Saratoga-Shilling Given

Vacation.

SARATOGA, N. Y., Aug. 29.— Cherryola, at 10 to 1, proved a big surprise when she easily won the handleap at one mile, the feature of the card here today. She was ridden by Moore, and after trailing her field to the head of the stretch found an opening and, coming out with a rush, caught the leader at the furlong pole, and won by three lengths.

Joeney Shilling will not ride here until the Futurity, when he will have the mount on Novely. Sam Hildreth is taking this precaution so that he will not be deprived of his rider in the rich stakes. The boy might be surpended for a few days. Summaries:

NATIONAL COMES INTO FOLD

Local Company Will Back Flyers in Program Starting Saturday-Discuss Plans Today.

Three Indianapolis-built cars-two Coles and a Parry-yesterday entered the races to be held at the Speedway Saturday and to be held at the Speedway Saturday and Monday. The Cole Motor Car Company nominations will be driven by Bill Endicott and W. J. Edmunds, well-known Indianapolis pilots, who have participated in nearly all the meetings which have been held on the local course.

The Cole, which made an enviable record in the recent twenty-four hour race at Brighton Beach will be seen in a five-mile contest for cars of the 161-230 class on Saturday and also in the five-mile free-for-all handicap. Endicott and Edmunds will drive the Cole in the five-mile class race and the free-for-all over mile class race and the free-for-all over Hughle Hughes will drive a Parry car in the five-mile race for cars of the 231-300 class and in the five-mile free-for-all handicap on Saturday. The same car has been entered in similiar events on Monday. This will be the first time the Parry has competed on the Speedway. Hughes has just returned from Dayton where he went to confer with officials of the Montgomery County Fair Association relative to racing at the fair to be held soon. It is probable he will enter the Dayton events.

MIDLAND TUNES UP.

MIDLAND TUNES UP.

The Midland car of Moline, Ill., driven by R. H. Ireland, began tuning up on the Speedway yesterday, joining the two Mc-Farlan cars, which appeared Saturday. The Midland has futered for the Remy Brassard and in free-for-all and stock events. It raced here in July.

The nominations will close tomorrow light. There are more than twenty-live cars entered and fifteen or twenty more are expected at the eleventh hour, are expected at the eleventh hour, are expected at the eleventh hour, are cording to the perfect of the National Company took no part in the contests at Eligin, but two of its cars, both entered by private owners, did.

Following the death of Tommy Kincade, teammate of Johnny Aitken, on the Speedway, the National Company was undecided as to its future in the racing game. Aitken announced his withdrawal from active competition and it was said there would be no decision until A. C. Newby, president of the concern, returned from Europe, where he went last mouth for a reat account of the concern, and the summation of the interest of National Towns, and it is certain that at least two National racing pilots.
