

RDOM

Palace Auto Show Will Prove Big Week.

Endicott, Cole 30, in His Racing Togs.

The Cole 30 that made such a consistent record at the Speedway Friday was driven by Endicott. His friends joked him, saying that he looked like a "dark-face minstrel" with his felt face protection. Many of the brave drivers wore chamols-skin face protectors, with holes cut for the eyes and mouth, but Endicott selected felt. He said that another layer of the cloth, would not have been too much to keep the cold winds and sand from hurting his face.

ing meetings of the week is that of the Manufacturers' Contest Association, which will be held at the Manhattan Hotel Friday, Jan. 3, 1914.

of the Automobile Club of America and president of the executive committee of the Steel Trust and his fellow members of

WILL M.