

PURSUE DEATH IN SPIN AROUND RIM OF SAUCER

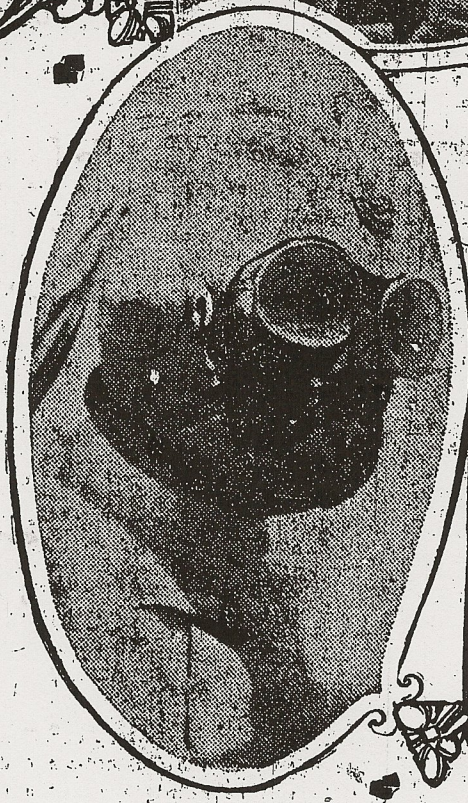

DAVID BRUCE-BROWN.

HARRY GRANT.

The world's most famous drivers court death today at the speedway.

Bruce-Brown, winner of the Savannah grand prize race, will drive a Fiat, Harry Grant, two-time winner of the Vanderbilt cup, wants Hoosier laurels and will speed in an Alco. Bobby Burman, Monday, smashed three track records, quarter, half and kilometer stretches. He hopes to break other records today, as well as win the big prizes. Louis Chevrolet, who has not driven for months because of serious injury in the Vanderbilt race last October is here with his Buick.

BOBBY BURMAN.

LOUIS CHEVROLET.

batted for Dowd. Hinchman dropped Carisch's Popp. Hallman singled. Woodruff out, Hinchman to Hohnhorst. McCarthy single, scoring Carisch. Houser walked, filling the bases. Getz fled to Burns. One run.
