

E

SU

INDIANAPOLIS, INDIANA, WEDNESDAY, MAY 31, 1911.

SPEEDING WASP, HARROUN'S CAR, ONLY BLUR AT FINISH

WINNER "CAUGHT" CROSSING LINE TO VICTORY.

AUTO PLUNGES INTO RIVER; MEN DESERT

Chicago Drivers Also Send Machine Into Canal at Holton Place.

Two autoists abandoned a big racing car when it went over the banks of White river at Riverside dam Tuesday night. The car was found by William Stam, 552

BALLOONIST DYING OF FALL OUT OF SKY

Victim of Marion Holiday Celebration Suffers Fatal Hurt.

(Special to The Sun.)
MARION, Ind., May 31.—Frank Crawford, a balloonist, who fell 1,000 feet when his parachute failed to work yesterday, is

OHIO JUDGE AFTER CRITICS OF COURT

Cincinnati Clergymen May Be Yanked Up on Contempt Charges.

CINCINNATI, O., May 31.—Cincinnati clergymen who criticized Judge William L. Dickson of the Hamilton county court for quashing the two perjury indictments against former Boss George B. Cox, likely

PR
NE
P

Boc

SC

Dea

"W work Charl
gradu
Schoc
The the t cation
he su
Train on a
"Th went'
boys entire trimm to us the c don't they would in the
"Selc