GAME PROTESTED.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Aug. 2.—The second game of Sunday's double-header, which was played here between Louisville and Minneapolis, was protested by Secretary

Tom Chivington, of the Louisville club who wrote President O'Brien, asking him to throw the game out. With Hughes and Packard on third and second, Dunleavy hit a slow ball to the infield and Hughes and Packard scored, while First Baseman Gill, of the Minneapolis team dropped the ball, which rolled into the infield. Umpire Conohan called Dunleavy safe and ordered Hughes and Packard back to the bases, claiming that Dunleavy interfered with the ball.
