

SEPT. 12, 1933

ARTHUR NEWBY, PIONEER AUTO BUILDER, DIES

One of Speedway Founders
Known for Work as Philanthropist.

Funeral services for Arthur C. Newby, 68, Indianapolis business man and philanthropist, who died Monday night at his home, 4020 North Meridian street, will be held at 3 Wednesday at the residence with burial in Crown Hill cemetery.

Mr. Newby was a pioneer in the automobile and bicycle industries, and was one of the group of men who first organized the Indianapolis motor speedway in 1909.

Aside from his work in bicycle and automobile industries, Mr. Newby had been outstanding for philanthropic work which he had done. He purchased a tract of wooded land near Turkey Run state park, and gave it to the state at a time when the conservation department was without funds. He had given approximately $50,000 each to Butler university and Earlham college.

Mr. Newby never had married, and had made his home for some time with his cousin, Mrs. Henry L. Edwards and her daughter, Miss Bertha Edwards.

Retired Minister Dies

Death came Monday to the Rev. James Hixson, 82, retired Methodist minister, who had served thirty-one years as a member of the Indiana Conference of the Methodist Episcopal church. Mr. Hixson was retired thirteen years ago. His death was the result of a fall which he suffered recently.

Before his retirement, Mr. Hixson had served four pastorates in Indianapolis, including the California

Second Divorce Attempt Is Lost by Mrs. Jelke

Judge Refuses Plea, That
He Reverse Decision
Denying Liberty.

By Times Special

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Sept. 12. — Mrs. Eugenia Woodward Jelke lost her second attempt for freedom from her millionaire broker mate, Frazier Jelke, in court here Monday.

A motion was dismissed by Judge Charles A. Walsh, in superior court, asking that the judge reverse his original decision and grant her a divorce. Cruelty was her charge in her petition.

BEDBUGS IN JAIL! CLIENT IS PERILED

Attorney to Make Demand on County for Cleanup.

Bedbugs are so rampant in the Marion county jail that an attorney used them in a plea today for the release of a client. A motion for a new trial also was filed.

The client, is Robert Hutton, 145 South Ritter avenue, who has served four days of a ten-day term on second conviction of speeding by Municipal Judge William H. Sheaffer.

William W. Spencer, counsel for Hutton, told Sheaffer today that he proposes to demand a jail clean up order from county commissioners and the sheriff.

The attorney filed the motion for a new trial on statutory grounds, asserting the conviction was contrary to the law.

In addition to the jail term, Hutton was fined $1 and costs. The first speeding conviction was on July 12, and the second last Saturday.

Mrs. Eugenia Jelke

DOG THIEF IS BALKED

Yells Rout Youth Attempting to Carry Off Terrier.

Yells routed a dog thief mounted on a bicycle who Monday attempted to steal a dog from the home of Mrs. Ruth Scarbrough, 1219 Olive street.

While no one was in the house, a youth about 19 cut a hole in the front door screen and entered. He came out carrying a terrier.

A man living across the street yelled, and the youth dropped the dog, mounted the bicycle and rode